“HALAAL” PORK BONES – THE SATANISM OF THE ICOSA CARRION-HALAALIZER

A miserable, paper entity called ICOSA (Islamic Council of South Africa), lacking entirely in credibility and validity, operates as a carrion-halaalizing vendor issuing haraam ‘halaal’ certificates to halaalize meat products sold by kuffaar establishments. The haraam boodle is the lure.

North Beach Spar in Durban has advertised “halaal” swine bones. The logo of the ICOSA outfit appears clearly emblazoned on the plastic bags containing the pork bones. The insipid statement of apology issued by Spar serves no purpose whatsoever. “Halaal” Vark (Pork) – halaalized by the logos of SANHA, MJC, ICOSA and NIHT is now a perennial occurrence. Each time, it was a customer who discovered the swine sin committed by the kuffaar business outlets halaalized by the confounded illegitimate progeny of Iblees. The halaalizing shaitaani body, ICOSA in this case, is solely responsible for the intolerable so-called “mistake”. “Mistake” has become a convenient crutch for leaning on in every swine sin debacle.

In a supine attempt to defend the “mistake” and to assure Muslims, Spar states in its insipid apology: “We have ICOSA that comes once a week to check our standards are kept.” This is an emphatic admission of total lack of Islamic supervision. Spar admits to selling pork. “We have a frozen section where we sell tray ready frozen pork products.” ICOSA has no Islamic shame and no semblance of Imaani conscience, hence it halaalizes the meat products of non-Muslims who also stock pork on the same premises, and where there is no Islamic supervision as demanded by the Shariah. The once a week visit is a stupid mock supervision. In all the swine sin debacles which have hitherto occurred, not once did any supervisor/inspector of any of the confounded illegitimate haraam ‘halaal’ certificate vendors ever discover the confounded irregularity. It was always a customer.

The Muslim public should not be fooled by assurances of ‘supervision’ proffered by these vile haraam ‘halaal’ certificate vendors. They are in the game for the haraam boodle with which they nourish themselves. Their brains are clouded with vapours of darkness generated by all the haraam they indulge in, especially the swine sins and the haraam carrion they feed the Muslim public by deception. The blame for “halaal” carrion and “halaal” pork settles more on the Muslim community who has become addicted to devouring carrion and pork on the basis of a stupid ‘halaal’ sticker.
