THE “CAMEL-HUMP” BUN IS FORBIDDEN

The sudden upsurge in the new “hijabi” trend amongst Muslim females is both unfortunate and disturbing. This trend involves making a large bun in order to attract attention to oneself, sometimes using hair clips to create a big camel-like hump on the head. This is not only a deception but also a form of Tabarruj (a woman's making a wanton display of her beauty) which is contradictory to the rules of hijab and a destructive sin in the Sight of Allah.

Nabi ﷺ said:

“There will be in the latter part of my Ummah scantily dressed women, the hair on the top of their heads like a camel’s hump. Curse them, for verily they are cursed.” (Muslim & At-Tabrani)

“There are two types of people from the inhabitants of Hell whom I have not seen: men in whose hands are whips like the tails of cattle, with which they beat the people, and women who are clothed yet naked, those who incline towards others and cause others to incline towards them, whose heads are like the humps of camels. They will neither enter Paradise nor smell its fragrance, although its fragrance can be detected from such and such a distance.” (Muslim)
