Question

Asaalmu Alaikum Wa Rahmatullah,

My wife believe in the corona virus and refuse to engage with me. I come home use sanitiser and wash, I cannot do this as it is ruining my marriage as a husband. Please advise if what I should do?

FAKE, not

ANSWER

The dogs of the west have joined forces with the shaitaani pig virus and are trying to destroy us from every angle. We have mentioned this very same story by the kuffar and the magiq to darken the rays of the our Naq!

ours

My beloved brother, your wife has been taken by the modernists, munafiqeen, scum molvis and sheiks of this era. You must show your devil worshipping wife how little you think of this pig virus and her refusal to give you what is your right over her. Find the nearest pet, hamster, dog, cat, what ever fits your loins and relieve yourself into the pet. For surely that pet is of a higher standing then your boot licking spouse.

hele Kilaabun Naar (Dogs of Hell-Fire) will understand their villainy when their souls are stuck in their throats at the time of Maut, and in Qiyaamah at Haudh-e- Kauthar.
