MOLVIS – ENEMIES OF THE DEEN

A Brother from the U.K. writes:

Two days ago, a few Local Authority Officials are 'reported' to have visited 1 or 2 local Masaajid here in UK and are 'reported' to have found all the silly Covid-19 measures in order except for their observation of noticing a few Musallees, although wearing face-masks, not covering their noses. They are reported not to have even logged this observation.

However some local Scholars have blown this visit and supposed 'indiscretion' of not covering noses out of all proportion claiming, the sin of any Masjid being forced to close will fall on the person not wearing a facemask.

They justify their ruling by quoting Mr Taqee Uthmaani and describing it as 'waajib.'

No comments are ever made for the wanton neglect of face-masks in supermarkets, restaurants, markets, public transport, pubs, beaches, mass demonstrations, sporting events and a host of other venues of futility and sin.

However, this visit by Covid-19 Officers has gone viral with those very Maulvis trumpeting the possible 'doomsday' scenario of Masaajid Closures – who were the first to meet and issue a verdict to close Masaajid in UK over six months ago – well before any Government Ruling on closure of Places of Worship.

They quote Mr Taqee Uthmaani's fatwa on following the laws of any country wherein we are residing, whilst maintaining silence when Charity and other Criminal Laws are brazenly flouted by their associates.

COMMENT

Molvi Taqi's fatwa is baseless. Increasingly, he is veering from the Path of the Akaabir Ulama and issuing fatwas to appease the modernist palate. In terms of the Shariah he is now person'a non grata.

The brains of these deviant scoundrel molvis have been rendered impuissant with kufr.

While the 'scholars' of deviation were the very first scoundrels to close the Musaaajid even well before the atheists had ordered the closure, they are now quick to shift the blame of their kufr to Muslims who seek to uphold the Deen. They have converted the Musaaajid into some weird temples completely alien to Islam. It is not permissible to perform Salaat in the Musaaajid if the host of kufr conditions of the atheists has to be adopted. In this case Salaat should be performed at home if there is no Musjid where Salaat is performed as commanded by Allah Ta'ala.

Regarding the Satanist conditions ordered by the authorities, there is no imperative need to submit. Muslims do have a choice – the choice of performing Salaat in a weird temple in conflict with the Sunnah and Shariah, and the option of performing Salaat correctly at home. By opting for performing Salaat at home, there will be no infraction of the laws of the atheist government, while at the same time the command of Allah Ta'ala will be correctly fulfilled.

Molvi Taqi and the other corona virus bootlicking molvis are very selective in their obedience and submission to governments. When it suits their whims and monetary objectives, they conveniently forget about obeying the government. They squander millions of dollars in haraam structures in their Darul Ulooms. The bulk of the money is transferred from foreign countries via channels which are criminal in terms of the laws of the atheist governments. Since these molvis indulge in these crimes and the crime of tax evasion and other attendant issues, they have a different standard in this regard. However, regarding the Deen, they have exhibited an appalling attitude of bootlicking to appease the atheist authorities.

Why did these scoundrel molvis close the Musaaajid at a time when it was not required by the government? There is a deep underlying sinister objective, in fact a satanic plot to destroy the Deen. The munaafiq molvis and sheikhs all over the world, including South Africa, had decided to close the Musaaqid even before the government had issued this satanic and draconian order. The unanimity with which the scoundrel 'scholars for dollars' had conducted themselves was not a chance coincidence. It was a planned plot vomited into their mouths by their atheist masters. The yield was extremely lucrative in terms of dollars. The government story fielded by Molvi Taqi and others of his ilk, is another satanic red herring to deflect Muslim focus from the real issue, namely, the plot to destroy Islam by gradual satanic interference and dismantling.

Performing incongruous 'salaat' in a Masjid converted into a temple, one will be in violation of the Shariah. Gradually, people will adopt the kufr style permanently and crooked molvis with crooked brains driven on by monetary objectives will dig out from the kutub 'proofs' to condone the kufr methods and ways innovated to change the entire Face of Islam. No one has harmed the Deen as much as these scoundrel molvis have. It is not at all surprising that Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) had described the molvis and sheikhs of times in proximity to Qiyaamah as being "the worst of the people under the canopy of the sky from who will emanate fitnah."
