SANHA'S HARAAM CARRION CHICKEN "RACKET"

A Brother sent us the following announcement made by the Carrion Cabal of SANHA:

CERTIFICATE WITHDRAWN!

AL-MEHRAN RESTAURANT, 24 ROYSTON ROAD, SHAKILES CENTRE, PIETERMARITZBURG, KZN

Certification terminated with immediate effect due to breach of contract.

Kindly Exercise Caution!

P.S. All other Al-Mehran stores continue to be certified by SANHA.

Commenting on the above shenanigan carrion announcement, the Brother says:

“The above restaurant was caught with foreign chickens by some patrons and not by SANHA’s inspectors. What supervision is done by SANHA that the restaurant was caught out by customers? Imagine if the customers were not vigilant, people would still be eating HARAAM. The above announcement does not mean much. Why can’t they say it is Haraam? Why confuse the public with words? What about all the other Al-Mehran restaurants which are still certified Halaal by SANHA? Alhamdulillah! By the Majlis exposing the fitnah of SANHA more people are becoming aware of SANHA’s RACKET and are keeping an eye on their food consumption. Jazaakallaah and DUAS to the Ulama of THE MAJLIS.”

OUR COMMENT

This is one more exposure of the Carrion Cabal’s ‘halaal’ carrion filth. This incident is part of a perennial process of the EXPOSURE of SANHA’s halaalized carrion industry. SANHA never had nor does it have a viable system of inspection and supervision. Supervision and inspection in the Carrion Industry are lurid myths.

Since SANHA has a natural fear for the term ‘HARAAM’, it refrains from using it to describe filth and carrion which have become glaringly factual and established. The term also does not harmonize with the Carrion Industry’s minting of riba money.

Innumerable Muslims had been devouring the haraam imported chickens which the restaurant had been selling under cover of SANHA’s confounded haraam ‘halaal’ certificate. And, this consumption of the carrion chickens will continue for a considerable time because only a handful of the public has become aware of the stupid, hidden announcement SANHA has made. How long will it take for this silly announcement to filter through so as to reach each and every person who buys carrion chickens from the restaurant?

A mere stupid statement announcing the withdrawal of a certificate does not solve the grave imbroglio. While the Carrion Cabal shayaateen can sleep without their conscience rebelling in any way whatsoever, others who are concerned with Imaan, wonder with consternation at the irreparable damage SANHA has inflicted on Muslims by halaalizing CARRION. A stupid announcement is not the end of devouring from the particular outlet about which only 'caution' has been announced. The announcement cannot assure that 100% of those who are eating the carrion of this particular restaurant have become aware that the chickens of Al-Mehran restaurant have been proclaimed CARRION. The percolation of this information is a time-consuming process.

This incident should open the eyes of Muslims. It illustrates the following irrefutable facts:

- (1) That SANHA's Carrion Cabal had been in the dark – that it was blissfully unaware that the restaurant it was certifying was selling rotten, haraam carrion chickens
- (2) That SANHA's claims of supervision and inspection are a cruel, haraam farce. It is deception and falsehood piled one on the other.
- (3) That it were customers who discovered that the restaurant was selling imported haraam carrion chickens.
- (4) That until the point of discovery, Muslims were buying and devouring the carrion chickens believing same to be 'halaal' on account of the haraam carrion certificate of the Carrion Cabal.
- (5) That numerous Muslims will continue devouring the carrion until such time that the news reaches them.

MAY ALLAH TA'ALA DESTROY ALL THOSE WHO FEED THE UMMAH DISEASED, ROTTEN, HARAAM CARRION UNFIT FOR EVEN DOGS, AND PERHAPS UNFIT FOR EVEN VULTURES WHO THRIVE ON CARRION.
