

CADBURY'S HARAAM PORK CHOCOLATES

AND SANHA, THE CARRION HALALIZER'S UMBRAGE

THE PORK FACTS

- In Malaysia the Ministry of Health had established that some of Cadbury's chocolates contain PORK.
- The Muslim populace of Malaysia is up in arms against CADBURY for having been fed chocolates containing PORK.
- Prominent Muslim Organizations have called for a 'Jihad' against Cadbury factories.

SANHA CARRION HALAALIZER'S REACTION

SANHA, as all Muslims are aware is a CARRION, LIQUOR AND PORK halaalizer. With satanically deceptive arguments the scholars for dollars and other non-scholar juhhaal of this shaitaani outfit, to secure their haraam monetary objectives, present the stupid 'synthetic' alcohol and 'synthetic' pork arguments inspired into their corrupt hearts and convoluted brains by Iblees, deceive and trick Muslims into the palpable falsehood of such haraam products being 'halaal'.

Fearing that the Malaysian discovery may exercise a damaging and adverse effect on its own mercenary interests and boodle-coffer, SANHA swiftly sprang to the defence of CADBURY by criticizing the just and Islamic indignation of the Malaysian people. Thus in a statement, the SANHA jaahil, E.B.Lockhat who perhaps is deficient in the basic masaa-il of Baabul Istinja in Kitaabut Tahaarah, and unfamiliar with the rudimentary requisites of practical Istinja, stupidly slammed the Malaysian call for 'Jihad' against Cadbury. Reporting the jahl-e-muraqqab of SANHA's E.B.Lockhat, the

Sunday Times Extra of 1 June, 2014, states:

“But Sanha spokesman Ebi Lockhat said there were precise and definitive conditions for declaring a holy war and the suspicion of finding a haram (forbidden) ingredient in a food item was not one of them, “hence we reject such a call”.

Pandering to SANHA’s pecuniary agenda and whimsical monetary lust, Ebi Lockhat acquitted himself as a clown in having made this statement. This man who is a jaahil in terms of the Shariah and deficient in the rudiments of Tahaarat, deems it appropriate to arrogate to himself the function of issuing ‘fatwa’ on the delicate and vital institution of Jihad. Without the slightest exogitation, the jaahil disgorges a ‘fatwa’ of jahl, and in the process presented a subtle and a cunning defence of Cadbury.

Firstly, the Malaysian call of ‘Jihad’ against Cadbury is not a call to take up arms. It is not a call for unfurling the standard of technical Jihad, i.e. Jihad with the Sword. In the context – the PORK ingredient context – the call is for Cadbury’s factories to be closed down. This call is fully in accord with the Shariah. Muslims were consuming PORK chocolates for years, and they are devouring PORK-containing chocolates and numerous processed foods all over the world – junk ‘food’ and carrion – halaalized by the likes of SANHA, MJC and NIHT, etc.

In a genuine Islamic state – and there is not a single such state today – all these haraam factories would be closed down and all carrion-halaalizers would be impaled and incinerated for they are the worst kinds of witchdoctors.

Secondly, despite the secular Ministry of Health employing scientific testing having established beyond doubt that Cadbury chocolates contained PORK, the faasiq, jaahil Ebi Lockhat with cunning refers to the PORK discovery: “the suspicion of finding a haraam ingredient. The finding of PORK in Cadbury’s chocolates is not the subject of ‘suspicion’. It is a proven and an established fact –established by scientific discovery – by science which is the god of these modernist, liberal carrion molvis and scholars of dollars.

of the Malaysian Muslims as 'extremism', speak volumes for its total disregard of the Qur'aan's emphasis on the consumption of halaal-tayyib food. SANHA's lust for haraam money has deranged the Imaan of its scholar for dollar ulama-e-soo'. By coming out in subtle defence of Cadbury's PORK chocolates, SANHA's vile molvis have demonstrated that they are among the Signs of Qiyaamah, for Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) said that a time will dawn when no care will be shown for halaal. As long as the boodle comes, whether in a halaal or haraam way, it will be welcome. The objective of life will be haraam boodle. SANHA is a conspicuous model of this Sign of Qiyaamah.

MAY ALLAH TA'ALA SAVE THE IGNROANT MUSLIM MASSES FROM THE WRETCHED, SATANIC TENTACLES OF THE ULAMA-E-SOO' – THE SCHOLARS FOR DOLLARS WHOSE MISSION IT IS TO HALAALIZE CARRION, LIQUOR, PORK AND RIBA.
