CONCERT ON THE HOLY NIGHT OF SHA'BAAN - THEY ARE NOT ULAMA – THEY ARE DEVILS INCARNATE

A Brother from Johannesburg writes:

As Salaam wa Alaikum,

I felt very sad at the state of the ummah here in Houghton in Johannesburg when a concert was held at the Houghton arena on West street on the night of the 15th of Shabaan. Adverts were sent out about top Qaris being seen performing together as a first, and the event being live streamed to the Dunya. The ladies facility was overflowing, and this is following incidents in the previous Ramadhan of the Masjid grounds being used for fraternisation.

This night is for peaceful self reflection and ibaadat. I am a layman only, and this did not feel right. Surely, there is no justification for such events. Am I wrong? The senior ulema inattendance also seem to revel in their celebrity.

Where in JHB can a normal layman Muslim go to Mosque and meet sincere Ulema who are on the straight path, and will guide us appropriately?

(End of letter)

There are no more sincere Ulama. We are living in an era in close proximity to Qiyaamah. This is the age of Rubbish 'ulama', for Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) said:

"The Saalihoon will depart one after the other (from the dunya in quick succession). Then there will remain only RUBBISH, like the chaff of dates or barley. Allah will not have any care whatsoever for them."

The morons who masquerade as Ulama are shayaateenul ins (human devils) mentioned in the Qur'aan and Hadith. Those involved in the concert which desecrated the holiness of the 15th

Night of Sha'baan are the agents and followers of Shaitaan. You must not expect better from these mal-oon

agents of Iblees. The stage is set worse.

May Allah Ta'ala save the sincere ones from the vile tentacles of these ulama-e-soo' who are the worst villains who have destroyed the Imaan of the Muslim community.
