“YOU HAVE BEEN CREATED FOR THE AAKHIRAH”

SAID RASULULLAH

(SALLALLAHU ALAYHI WASALLAM)

NOT FOR THE HARAAM MERRYMAKING CAMPING
AND AMUSEMENT FUN OF MADRESAH MIFTAAHUL
ULOOM KASAAN SKEERPOORT

Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) said:

“If you knew what I know (of the Qabr and Qiyaamah), you will laugh little, cry much and not derive any pleasure from your wives, and you would flee into the wilderness.....”

Yes, if you knew what our Nabi (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) knew, you would not organize a merrymaking stupid “Youth Program”.

Allah Ta’ala says in the Qur’aan Majeed: “The life of this world is but play and amusement while the Abode of the Akhirah is best for those who fear (those who have Taqwa and fear Allah Ta’ala).”

It is indeed lamentable that the Madrasah in Skeerpoort is disgracefully emulating the ways of the modernist deviates and even Ulama are promoting the haraam “camping, wrestling, swimming, archery and much more” –whatever this may mean – program organized by the misguided management of this Madrasah. While the Ummah universally is ablaze with jahaalat, misery, poverty and suffering of a variety of kinds – all facets of the Athaab of Allah Ta’ala – the Madrasah, totally impervious of all the misery and suffering, indulges in merrymaking. Instead of creating awareness of the Aakhirah in the youngsters – instead of instilling fear in them for the Qabr and Qiyaamah, the Madrasah is recklessly diverting the youngsters from the Deen and casting them into the jeefah (carrion) cauldron of the dunya.

The terms, wrestling, swimming and archery are used as decoys. Since these acts are praiseworthy in terms of the Hadith, the juhala molvis have latched on to them to bamboozle the ignorant and the unwary – to deceive them into understanding that the merrymaking kuffaar style camping is a Deeni program. But in reality, it is a far, very far call from the Deen. The lecture by Molvi Kajee and the Qiraat by some miscreant qaari are mere red herrings. In fact, the bayaan and the qiraat at this merrymaking camping program are like reciting Tasmiyah when consuming pork and wine.

What has happened to the Aql of these molvis and qaaris? Are their brains so clogged with love for the dunya's jeefah that they so miserably fail to comprehend the evil and villainy of the merrymaking camping program? Allah Ta'ala, calling Muslims to open their clogged brains for understanding naseehat says in the Qur'aan Majeed:

“And on earth there are (numerous) signs (for deriving lesson), and even in yourselves. What! Have you no intelligence?”

Only such molvis who are bereft of Nooraani Aql are blind to the reality of the moral corruption and spiritual harm of these merrymaking programs. To the Sahaabah, wrestling, swimming, archery and fencing were not sporting activities. These were not merrymaking and fun programs such as the khuraafaat which molvis organize today.

After Isha, the children and even the adults have to be incumbently in their homes, not in the streets and not in the bush making merry with laughter and gluttony. And from whence did these molvis acquire the epithet “Youth Program”? Is there any such program substantiated in the Sunnah or in the Qur'aan or in the lives of the Salafus Saaliheen? Did they amuse their youngsters with kuffaar style merrymaking programs?

The term ‘youth’ has now acquired a pejorative hue. It portrays the desire for tashabbuh bil kuffaar. In fact, it will not be an exaggeration to say that the word ‘youth’ in these contexts has become a stupid swear-word. It portrays the brainlessness of these molvis who use this stupid kuffaar term for their programs. The word ‘youth’ is much in use in kuffar forums. Now

Muslims too, due to their bootlicking disease, deem it honourable to employ this term and to lick the boots of even their youngsters to create stupid name and fame – to show that they are moving with the times – the times of the kuffaar. Women's empowerment and youth programmes are among the salient features of today's atheist kuffaar. The bootlicking Muslims are also insanely aping the ways and styles of the kuffaar in all spheres of life.

“Youth” is silliness and deprecated by Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) who said:

“The best of your youngmen are those who emulate oldmen, and the worst of your oldmen are those who emulate your youngmen.”

The teaching of Islam is to emulate pious oldmen, not act like the mad, fussaag, fujjaar youth of today. The molvis too are using the ‘youth’ for despicable nafsani motives.

Far from understanding even the very rudiments of Islaah-e-Nafs, these camping and merrymaking haraam programs only aggravate nafsaniyat. Islaah of the nafs is acquired only in the suhbat of the Saaliheen, not in stupid merrymaking camping programs graced by molvis who have lost the Path of Jannat.

And what is so ‘special’ about the ‘lecture program’ of the molvi who will be giving his talk to the morons? The molvi should examine himself to understand the special nafsaniyat which motivated him to participate in the stupid, silly, haraam merrymaking camping ‘youth’ program organized by the miscreant management of the madrasah.

While Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) ordered sleep or ibaadat after Isha, forbidding unnecessary conversation, the molvis of the merrymaking camping are training the youngsters to do the exact opposite. After Isha' they will be engaging in laughter, joking, and stupidity in general. It will be just eating and indulging in merrymaking. And such is not meant for those who have any understanding of the imminence of Maut, the torments of the Qabar and the horrors of Qiyaamah.

To crown the villainy of the merrymaking, they have a R50 haraam fee for participating in nafsaniyat. Shame yourselves! You are a disgrace to Islam!
