

UNITY AND THE AGENDA TO REINTERPRET THE SHARIAH

Written by Mufti E.M.H. Salejee

Thursday, 05 December 2013 16:57 - Last Updated Monday, 20 January 2014 17:07

“UNITY” AND THE AGENDA TO REINTERPRET THE SHARIAH

By Mufti E.M.H.Salejee (Estcourt)

UNITY

The concept of unity has always been looked upon with approval. Rarely does any individual bat an eye-lid when unity is preferred as a solution. All unity, however, is not laudable. A unity wherein an individual has to make personal material sacrifices is assuredly praiseworthy and rewardable. Take for example a case of dispute between two brothers who are at odds with one another as regards who takes what from their late father's estate. That brother who foregoes his right for the sake of unity will indeed be commended. Yet, at the same time none will laud the unity of criminals. Imagine how the fight against crime would be hampered if criminals organised themselves and became a united force... Click here to read more