STATEMENT BY THE PRINCIPAL OF DARUL ULOOM DEOBAND

ANOTHER BOOTLICKING STUPIDITY

Abdul Qasim Nomani, the principal of Darul Uloom Deoband in his statement portrays conspicuous bootlicking. It is obvious that the statement is designed to flatter, appease and bootlick the cow-worshippers of India.

The views expressed by the principal are in conflict with the Shariah. While it is understood that the Ulama in the land of the cow and idol-worshippers are under severe pressure, with the threat of being arrested by the brutal Modi shaitaani government, bootlicking is not expected from the Ulama.

The Ummah is weak, corrupt and rotten to the core. Notwithstanding this irrefutable reality, bootlicking is absolutely disgraceful. When Muslims lack the means for defending themselves and Islam, then SABR and INAABAT are the only options. Silently bear the indignities and the oppression of the agents of Shaitaan.

In the circumstances, the best option for the Ulama is to maintain silence, and not issue bootlicking statements with convoluted interpretations of the Qur'aan and Ahaadith to bootlick governments. Maintain silence, withdraw into your cloisters of Ibaadat, resort to Taubah and Inaabat ilalaah and make Dua. Petition and supplicate to Allah Ta'ala to break and destroy the oppressors. If we correctly renew our Pledge of Obedience and submit to the Shariah, and adopt the Sunnah, and abandon the spineless attitude of emulating the western kuffaar, then Allah Ta'ala will turn the table for us.

The Ulama, with their bootlicking are deflecting the ignorant masses from Siraatul Mustaqeem and entangling themselves in the snares of the Munaafiqeen. May Allah Ta'ala curse them. May
