THE PLAGUE, THE MUSJID AND THE MUNAAFIQEEN

The very senior Sahaabi, Hadhrat Muaaz Bin Jabal (Radhiyallahu anhu) said during the Plague of Amwaas which ravaged the Land of Shaam, in which tens of thousands of Muslims including numerous Sahaabah died:

“It (this Plague of Amwaas) is the Rahmat of your Rabb and the Dua of your Nabi, and the Ma ut of the Saaliheen before you. O Allah! Grant the family of Muaaz an abundant share from this Rahmat. Before the evening his son Abdur Rahmaan whom he (Muaaz) loved most was infected.

Muaaz (Radhiyallahu anhu) returned from the Musjid and found his son in pain. He said to his son:

‘O Abdar Rahmaan! How are you?’ He responded and said: ‘O my father! (Then he recited Aayat 147 of Surah Baqarah: ‘The Haqq is from your Rabb. Therefore, do not become among the doubters.’). Muaaz (Radhiyallahu anhu) said: “I find you, if Allah wills, to be among the Saabireen.’ He died that same night.”

Note well! Hadhrat Muaaz (Radhiyallahu anhu) at this juncture was affected by the plague and so was his son, and so were innumerable thousands. He came from the Musjid to his home.

The Musjid was not closed. It was fully functioning. Jamaat Salaat was ongoing. Jumuah was ongoing.

During his final moments, Hadhrat Muaaz Bin Jabal (Radhiyallahu anhu) said to Al-Haarith Bin Umairah (Radhiyallahu anhu):

“Beware of the slip of the Aalim and the disputation of the Munaafiq.”

Yes, we should beware of the munaafiqeen – these abominable copro-creep hypocrites within our midst. They have now exposed themselves. The community should sever all relationship with these traitors and enemies of the Deen. Salaat is not valid behind them. They reek of the rotten stench of nifaaq and kufr. Perhaps vultures will be averse to devour their rotten corpses.

The Leaders of the cartel of Munaafiqeen are the Munaafiq reverend Bhum, the Munaafiq Taha Karan, their paper body Bogus uucsa and the carrion halaalizer mjc. These are the shayaateen ul ins who closed the Musajjid even before the government had ordered the oppressive lockdown. These are the human devils who cried and plead to the kuffaar court to keep the Musajjid closed, and to ban the daily Fardh Salaat and Jumuah Salaat in the Musajjid.

They are the Munaafiqeen who struggled to convince the kuffaar court that the Musajjid are the worst spreaders of disease. They are the Munaafiqeen who argued that the Musajjid are non-essential, and that there is no need for Salaat to be performed in the Musajjid. They are the Munaafiqeen about whom the Qur’aan Majeed says:

“Who is a greater zaalim (oppressor) than the one who prevents the Thikr of Allah in the Musaaqid (and added to this villainy) he strives in the destruction of the Musaaqid?”
(Al-Baqara, Aayat 114)

“(O Muhammad!) Inform the munaafiqeen that most certainly there is for them a painful chastisement. They (the munaafiqeen) are those who take as friends the kaafireen besides the Mu’mineen. What! Do they search for honour by them. (Know!) Verily all honour belongs to only Allah.”
(An-Nisaa’, 138, 139)

That most painful chastisement awaiting these Munaafiqeen in Jahannam is called Ad-Darkul Asfal Minan Naar (The Lowest Pit in Hell-Fire).
