

DAARUL FISQ WAL FUJOOR

- THE ABODE OF VICE AND IMMORALITY –

QUESTION

I am a student at a Darul Uloom in Cape Town. We are having a family fun- day-braai fund raiser as we did last year. The event allows for women and children to freely mix. Last year there were women and men mixing, and the girls and boys freely enjoyed mutual conversations. Certain concerned students were discussing the matter. Is it permissible for a Darul Uloom to have a function like this? What should we as students do? We fear the principal might regard us as opposition and we might be treated disdainfully.

ANSWER

The place where you are studying is not a genuine Daarul Uloom. It is daarul jahl – daarul fisq wal fujoor. It is a promoter of shaitaanityat and immorality. According to the Hadith, in times close to Qiyaamah, “knowledge will be acquired for purposes other than the Deen.”

This

is a manifestation of one of the Signs of Qiyaamah. There is no need to present detailed arguments to convince any sane Muslim of the villainy and evil of the shaitaani ‘fun-day-braai’ which the evil principal organizes with his eyes on the boodle. For the sake of money, he has betrayed Allah Ta’ala, Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) and all the Students who are in his institution for the pursuit of Ilm of the Deen. He is a khaa-in

of the worst order.

Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) said that obedience is not permissible to anyone if it involves disobedience to Allah Ta'ala. It is the Waajib obligation of the concerned Students to offer naseehat to their deviated principal who has become a mudhil. Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) said: “Veri ly, I fear for my Ummah the aimma-e-mudhilleen (those molvis and sheikhs who mislead the Ummah).”

Do not be concerned about the annoyance of the principal. If he expels you, be pleased to be out from the abode of fisq and fujoor. Seek admission at some other Madrasah. It is not permissible to pursue Deeni Knowledge at such a corrupt institution where you have become entrapped nor is it permissible for Muslims to contribute for the upkeep and running of an institution which promotes even zina in the name of Islam.

The intermingling of men and women, young boys and girls, and that too, at a kuffaar-style haraam 'braai' party satanized with zina paraphernalia are the introductory steps of zina – shaitaani steps which the institution planned in direct conflict and rejection of the Qur'aanic prohibition: “Do not venture NEAR to ZINA.”

Indeed, the persons responsible for this unbelievable satanism at an institution dubbed a 'darul uloom' are veritable agents of Iblees. They dig up the foundations of Islam in the name of Islam. They are a grave moral and spiritual danger to the students who are supposed to pursue the Knowledge of the Deen for the Sake of Allah Ta'ala and for their salvation in the Aakhirat.

These human devils masquerading as 'ulama' and 'ustaadhs', but who flagrantly promote fisq, fujoor and even zina at an institution peddled as a 'daarul uloom' belong to the 'Hufaalah' (RUBBISH)

egory stated by Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) in the following Hadith:

“The Saalihoon will depart (i.e. from this world) one after the other (in quick succession. Then will remain only the HUFAALAH (rubbish, chaff, scum, waste matter) such as the hufaalah of barley and dates. Allah will have no care whatsoever for them.”

There have never been in the Ummah personnel who have harmed Islam and the Ummah as much as the vile 'scholars' for dollars (ulama-e-soo'/aimmah mudhilleen) who prowl around nowadays. They have descended into the sewerage gutter far lower than the ulama-e-soo of Bani Israaeel. They are the type who will have to circumambulate their own intestines in Jahannam as mentioned in the Hadith. It is extremely lamentable and shocking beyond words of adequate condemnation for a supposed 'daarul uloom' to organize parties and 'braai' functions expected of only kuffaar given to drunken revelry and orgies.

It will not at all be surprising if these shayaateenul ins (human devils) justify their fisq and fujoor with Qur'aanic verses and Hadith narrations. Such conduct has been predicted in the Hadith. Narrating a Hadith, Hadhrat Abdullah Ibn Mas'ood (Radhiyallahu alnahu) said to a group of people:

“What will be your condition when you are enveloped by such a fitnah which will be regarded as Sunnah. The elders will become senile and the young will become old. If anything is left out from the fitnah, it will be said that a Sunnat has been discarded.” The people asked: 'When will that be?' Abdullah Ibn Mas'ood (Radhiyallahu anhu) said: “When your Ulama have departed (i.e. the Ulama-e-Haqq/Ulama-e-Rabbaani); when your qaaris are in abundance; when (from even the Ulama-e-Haqq) few will be Fuqaha, when the people of trust will be few, when the rulers will be abundant; when the dunya will be pursued with the amal (deeds) of the Aakhirah (i.e. with ibaadat and Deeni activities), and when knowledge will be acquired for purposes other than the Deen.”

May Allah Ta’ala save the unwary and ignorant, especially the Students, from the scoundrels who promote zina at the abode of villainy dubbed ‘daarul uloom’.
