FEAR FOR ALLAH

“The thunder recites the Tasbeeh of Allah, and the Malaaiakah (recites His Tasbeeh) because of fear. He (Allah) sends the lightning which strikes whomever (and whatever) He wills. And they (people) dispute (in the laws) of Allah whilst He is Most Powerful.” (Qur’aan)

Allah sent Wahi (Revelation) to the Sea that it should obey Musaa (Alayhis salaam) when he will be striking it with his staff. Thereupon the Sea quivered the entire night because of fear. (Hadith)

Q & A

Q. After making wudhu when I enter the Masjid, what Salaat must I perform – Tahyatul Wudhu or Tahyatul Masjid?

A. Combine both niyyats. Make intention for both Salaat.

Q. Is Tayammum valid on seashells?

A. Tayammum is not valid on seashells.

Q. What will be the fate of the aborted child? Will it be given to the parents in Qiyaamah?

A. The aborted child will stand in Allah's Court as a complainant against his/her parents. The child will not be a Treasure for the parents as other children will be. The aborted child will not be given to its parents who had murdered it.

Q. I fasted on 10th and 11th Muharram. Can I count these as being my Qadha fasts?

A. If you had made niyyat of Qadha before Subh Saadiq, then your Qadha was valid. If you did not make the niyyat of qadha before Subh Saadiq, then the fasts were Nafil.

IBLEES

"Iblees has greater humility than the crank suffis". (Allaamah Sha'raani)

SUCH WERE OUR FUQAHA

THE ILLUSTRIOUS IMAAM SARAKHSI

(Rahmatullah alayh)

IMAAM MUHAMMAD AHMAD Bin Abu Sahl Abu Bakr Shamsul Aimmah As-Sarakhsi (Rahmatullah alayh) – died 482 Hijri – was imprisoned by the tyrannical ruler for his (the Imaam's) Anw Bil Ma'roof Nahy Anil Munkar. The illustrious Imaam was imprisoned in a deep well.

However, students would assemble at the mouth of the well, and Imaam Sarakhsi would conduct his dars (class) from within the well. His students would commit to writing the discourses on Fiqh delivered by the great Imaam. In this manner 16 volumes were compiled. The Imaam did not teach from kitaabs. Whatever he imparted was from his mind and heart. Ilm is a Noor from Allah. It resides in the purified heart of the Mu'min.

His Taqwa

Once when the Imaam from inside the well did not hear the voice of one student, he enquired about his whereabouts. A student responded saying that he has gone to make wudhu. At the same time this student informed the Imaam that due to the extreme cold he had not made wudhu. Imaam Sarakhsi (Rahmatullah alayh) reprimandingly commented:

"Do you not have any shame for not being able to make wudhu in this degree of cold? (In other words, the Imaam did not accept the cold to be a valid justification for a student in dars being without wudhu). Once during my student days I was afflicted with a severe fever which caused me diarrhoea. I was constrained to relieve myself 40 times. Each time I would make wudhu at the water-channel. On reaching home, the ink in the inkpot had frozen due to the intensity of the cold. I would clasp the inkpot to my breast for the ink to melt with the warmth of my (feverish) body. When the ink melted, I would commence writing."

His Karaamat

When Imaam Sarakhsi (Rahmatullah alayh) was arrested, he was transported in chains to Oozjand for imprisonment in the well. Along the journey when it was time for Salaat, the fetters would miraculously fall from his hands and feet. He would make wudhu or tayammum, then proclaim the Athaan and commence the Salaat.

When the Salaat commenced, the dumbfounded guards observed a jamaa't of musallis dressed in green performing Salaat behind the Imaam. These were Malaikah. After completion of the Salaat, he said to the guards: 'Now tie me.' The guards responded: 'O Khwaaajah! We have seen your miracle. We cannot fetter you.' Imaam Sarakhsi said: "I am under the command of Allah's laws. I have fulfilled His command so that I may not be put to shame on the Day of Qiyaamah. On the other hand, you are the subordinates of the oppressor. Therefore, obey his order (and tie me) to escape his oppression."

His Observance of the Sunnah

On reaching the city of Oozjand where he would be imprisoned in a well, Imaam Sarakhsi (Rahmatullah alayh) went into a Musjid for Salaat (i.e. prior to his confinement inside the well). The Imaam of

ADVISING ULAMA

Q. Is it permissible for me as a layman to give naseehat to an Aalim who commits flagrant acts of haraam? It is regarded disrespectful for a layman to advise Ulama. Please comment.

A. Nowadays, most 'ulama' are in fact juhala. They compromise and trade the Deen for the dumya and to serve the desires of the nafs. It matters not that you are a layman. When you know the Haqq, proclaim it regardless of their criticism. You must expect to be criticized when you will state the Haqq. The only thing is that you must first make sure that what you are saying or believing is correct. If in doubt ask a pious Aalim

Haqq, then firmly state it and bear the criticism of the family with tolerance. Allah Ta'ala says in the Qur'aan Majeed:

"Command righteous, prohibit evil and have sabr on it (i.e. on the consequence of your proclamation of the Haqq)."

Never ask a bogus 'aalim' for any masaa-il. A sure sign of a bogus jaahil 'scholar' is the display of his snout on television, facebook and in videos. It does not matter how prominent the molvi/sheikh may be, if he appears on these Dajjaali media, then know that he is a satanic moron who misleads people. Shaitaan too is very prominent.

Do not be awed by so-called sons. In this era, Toms, Dicks, Harries, Hobsons, Jobsons and Hoblos appropriate and misappropriate such titles for themselves. These titles no longer hold any valid meaning. They now belong to bogus characters – to scholars for dollars and globe-trotting fakes who attract and mislead the ignorant masses with their oratory. Their objective is nothing but the dumya and the nafs.

Anw Bil Ma'roof Nahy Anil Munkar is Waajib and this obligation is not restricted to the Ulama, and the Ulama are not exempted from being advised by laymen. Who is a greater Aalim than Hadhrat Umar (Radhiyallahu anhu)? Laymen and laywomen would offer him Naseehat, and he would wholeheartedly accept it.

Asparagus

The vegetable asparagus is efficacious in curing cancer. Green Giant and Stokely brands are best as they are free from pesticides and preservatives. Or you can use fresh asparagus.

Instructions: Wash, cook, then put in blender to turn into puree. Refrigerate. Serve 4 tablespoons in the morning and 4 tablespoons in the evening. Patients usually see results in 2 – 4 weeks. It takes 3 months to 1 year to be completely cured of cancer. Some cure faster than others but it is a sure-cure. This cancer cure recipe cures lung cancer, skin cancer, bladder cancer, hodgkins disease (which is a cancer of the lymph glands) and kidney dis-
