Israeli Army Devastated in Gaza - Resistance Roundup - Day 222

May 15, 2024

By Palestine Chronicle Staff

What is happening is a change of tactics on the part of the Resistance which is altering the nature of the battles of Gaza altogether.

The initial assessment about the latest developments in the Israeli war in Gaza is that the war has gone back to the very start, despite the 222 days of constant fighting and relentless Israeli bombardment.

This reading was the outcome of reports published in Israeli media, citing Israeli military officials as saying that Hamas has regrouped in northern Gaza, an area that was supposedly subdued by the Israeli army in the early months of the war.

Today's fighting in Jabaliya, however, suggests that Hamas, and other resistance groups may have done more than just regrouped.

News from the battlefield, often documented by Gaza's Resistance, shows that the Israeli army is weaker than ever, and the Palestinian Resistance has the upper hand, at all fronts.

Earlier in the day, Wednesday, Al-Qassam Brigades, the military wing of Hamas, said it killed 12 Israeli soldiers from zero distance in the Jabaliya fighting.

That was only one of many statements issued by Gaza Resistance groups throughout the day.

Later, Israel sources, cited in Al-Jazeera admitted that in a single attack 20 occupation soldiers have been killed or wounded on Wednesday after a booby-trapped building in Jabaliya was detonated with Israeli forces inside.

The "difficult security incident", reported in the Israeli media, involved the 98th Division of the Israeli army, which is currently operating in the Jabaliya refugee camp.

As Israeli helicopters were spotted landing east of Jabaliya, Israeli hospitals said that they are dealing with large numbers of casualties as a result of the fierce battles taking place in Gaza.

According to the events of the last a few days, including the retreat of the Israeli army from Zaytoun, it is becoming clear that the issue is not mere regrouping of Resistance forces.

Instead, what is happening is a change of tactics on the part of the Resistance which is altering the nature of the battles of Gaza altogether.

Below are the latest statements by the two main Resistance forces in Gaza, and the Lebanese Resistance Movement Hezbollah.

The statements were communicated via their Telegram channels and are published here in their original form.
