

STRIKING BAATIL

"In reality, We (Allah) strike baatil (falsehood) with the Haq. It then smashes out the brains of baatil. And, lo, it (baatil) suddenly disappears."
(Qur'aan)

Al-Haq

THE BAND OF HAQ

"There will ever remain a band from my Ummah fighting on the Haq until the Day of Qiyaamah. Those who oppose them and those who do not aid them, will not be able to harm them."

ABU OBEIDA HAILS 'MILITARY MIRACLE' AS QASSAM FIGHTERS AMBUSH ISRAELI TROOPS IN RAFAH

The Palestine Chronicle reports:

Israeli media confirmed on Friday that one soldier was killed and six others were wounded—one critically—during a “security incident” in the southern Gaza Strip. Reports also indicated that wounded Israeli soldiers and officers were evacuated from Gaza, with three in critical condition.

According to Israeli reports, the fatality occurred during fighting in the Tel al-Sultan neighborhood in Rafah, although the exact circumstances were not disclosed. A military helicopter transporting the wounded landed at Ichilov Hospital in Tel Aviv. Israeli media had earlier noted that helicopters had transported casualties from an ongoing incident in southern Gaza, with reports indicating at least one soldier was seriously injured. Some outlets identified the targeted unit as part of the Israeli Border Guard.

Al-Jazeera reported that Israeli helicopters were actively evacuating wounded personnel from Rafah, as Israeli artillery shelled the northern areas of the city.

In a separate incident, another Israeli soldier was reported wounded in the Sheja'iyya neighborhood of Gaza City, suggesting a second resistance operation in a matter of hours.

Israel's Channel 12 also reported loud explosions across Gaza, attributing them to intensified Israeli military activity.

Meanwhile, the Israeli army said its forces in the Daraj neighborhood of Gaza City were targeted by an anti-tank missile. According to the military, the attackers were “eliminated.”

The Qassam Brigades, the military wing of Hamas, claimed responsibility for several recent ambushes.

'From Beit Hanoun to Rafah'

Abu Obeida, the spokesperson for the Al-Qassam Brigades, said in a Telegram post that their fighters are engaging Israeli forces across the Strip—from Beit Hanoun in the north to Rafah in the south—through coordinated ambushes designed to deliver “certain death” to invading troops.

He described the resistance operations as a “military miracle” and praised the fighters’ steadfastness and combat capabilities, saying they are prepared to confront the Israeli army at any time and place of their choosing.

The latest developments follow the death of a tank commander from the Israeli army’s 79th Battalion during fighting in northern Gaza on Thursday. A member of the elite Yahalom unit and another soldier from the same battalion were also seriously wounded.

According to the Times of Israel, the tank commander was killed by sniper fire in Beit Hanoun near the buffer zone, in a location close to where a tracker was killed the previous Saturday.

Last weekend, the Al-Qassam Brigades announced they had carried out the “Breaking the Sword” ambush east of Beit Hanoun.

The operation began with an anti-tank missile strike on an Israeli combat intelligence vehicle.

As a support force arrived, it was hit with an anti-personnel bomb, killing and injuring multiple soldiers. The Al-Qassam Brigades also attacked a newly established Israeli position in the area with RPGs and mortar shells.

ANOTHER MINI PUNISHMENT FOR THE ISRAELI YAHOOD

Wildfire traps 100 Israeli teens in Judean Desert

JNS STAFF (April 27, 2025 / JNS)

Israeli authorities were working on Sunday afternoon to rescue around 100 teenagers who were trapped in the Ein Prat Nature Reserve in the Judean Desert after a fire broke out on a popular hiking trail.

“Firefighters from the Binyamin Regional Station are currently working on a fire in Nahal Prat,” the Israel Fire and Rescue Services said in a statement. “According to reports, many hikers remain in the stream, and it is difficult to rescue them. In addition, there is a topographical challenge, making it difficult to reach the center of the blaze.”

Nahal Prat is also known as Wadi Qelt.

The effort to rescue the trapped teens includes officers of the Fire and Rescue Services’ Lehava National Special Rescue Unit, as well as Israel Police aerial assistance, the statement noted.

The group of some 100 Orthodox teenagers is hiking in the area as part of a school trip.

The Magen David Adom emergency medical response group said it received a report “regarding a fire in Wadi Qelt, between the village of Kfar Adumim and Alon.

“At this stage, there are no casualties,” the NGO said. “Medics near the fire location are securing the firefighting operations and reporting on hikers present at the scene, who are being evacuated in stages.”

Binyamin Regional Council head Israel Ganz, whose jurisdiction includes Nahal Prat, was called away from the inaugural JNS International Policy Summit in Jerusalem to assist in the rescue effort. (End of Report)

May the Athaab of Allah Azza Wa Jal eliminate the brutal Yahood and Nasaara oppressors.

“Then I seized the kuffaar. Thus, how (terrible) was My Punishment!.”
(Faatir, Aayat 26)

“...(Their brutality is) because of their arrogance on the earth and their plotting of evil schemes. (But) evil schemes will apprehend (and entangle) only their plotters. What! Are they waiting for only the Way (of Allah) regarding previous communities (whom He had destroyed)? Never will you find a change for the Sunnah of Allah, nor will you ever find a deflection for the Sunnah of Allah.”
(Faatir, Aayat 43)

The Eternal Sunnah of Allah Azza Wa Jal applicable to both kuffaar and Muslims remains on its course. For Muslims this Divine Sunnah is today being enacted in the form of Athaab via the agency of the Yahood and Kuffaar. For the Kuffaar, there awaits defeat and destruction at the end of this momentous upheaval. The punishment will run its divinely prescribed course, and no one can thwart the decree of Allah Ta’ala. Our duas are too late.

Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) had made it abundantly clear that once the Athaab strikes, the duas of the Buzrugs will be rejected because they had acted as Dumb Shayaateen by abstaining from Amr Bil Ma’roof Nahyi Anil Munkar. Now, caught in the whirlpool of Athaab, the only way of extrication is for Muslims to abandon their satanically hedonist lifestyle, to hasten to Taubah and to adopt the Sunnah configuration of the Shariah.
