

STRIKING BAATIL

"In reality, We (Allah) strike baatil (falsehood) with the Haq. It then smashes out the brains of baatil. And, lo, it (baatil) suddenly disappears."
(Qur'aan)

THE BAND OF HAQ

"There will ever remain a band from my Ummah fighting on the Haq until the Day of Qiyaamah. Those who oppose them and those who do not aid them, will not be able to harm them."

RETURN OF THE SHIRK OF IDOLATRY TO ARABIA MATERIALIZATION OF THE PREDICTION OF RASULULLAH (sallallahu alayhi wasallam)

Kufr has already destroyed Arabia. Murtad Bin Shaitaan (MBS) has effectively transformed Arabia into Daarul Harb. The Kufr which has hitherto consisted primarily of legalized immorality and obscenity and all zina paraphernalia such as music, liquor, singing, dancing, prostitution, and satanism of a variety of kinds, has now been compounded with the ultimate act of treason against Allah Azza Wa Jal, namely, the shirk of idolatry. There is no crime and villainy so abhorred by Allah Azza Wa Jal as shirk, and the worst form of shirk is the worship of idols.

Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) had predicted that Qiyaamah will not arrive before Arab women will be "gyrating with their backsides" around idols. They will whirl around idols with "their backsides" swinging. This is the description of Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) of the introduction of idolatry in Arabia. This time has now dawned in Arabia.

The Middle East Monitor reports:

"December 3, 2023 at 9:47 am

A wave of apparent Saudi social media accounts have been promoting and calling for the return of ancient Arabian deities as part of the kingdom's national heritage, amid the country's push to replace its religious identity with a more nationalist one.

One user on X, formerly Twitter, posted pictures of the ancient Arabian goddess 'Al-Uzza', showing imitated rituals surrounding the statue and existing figures of it displayed in Saudi museums.

According to that user, “from [the] past to [the] future al uzza is always there”. As Saudi Arabians, the user wrote, citizens are “deeply connected with our past ” and it “doesn’t matter if we’re Muslims or not”.

Due to the statues and deities being part of the peninsula’s history, the “Saudi government gives so much importance for the ancient Arabian gods”, reportedly because “our past is a part of our future”. “ (End of report)

Another report states:

UAE: Massive Buddha statue installed on Abu Dhabi highway

“A 10m-tall statue of Buddha has been installed on one of the main highways connecting Dubai and Abu Dhabi. The installation is part of the Louvre Abu Dhabi exhibition, and the introduction of this Buddhist monument follows the opening of a Hindu temple by one of the princes of the UAE.

Although the statue is already installed on the Sheikh Zayed Road, the launch will take place on April 7th and will be part of the so-called Highway Gallery’s second edition. A total of ten pieces, dubbed ‘artwork’, will be installed on the road in the days to come, and will be seen by thousands of road users.

The installation of the Buddhist statue comes a year after an Emirati prince inaugurated the opening of the UAE’s first Hindu temple in Abu Dhabi, as well as the visit by Indian prime minister, Narendra Modi, in February 2018.

In a video uploaded by Al Masdar TV, the Emirati Prince is seen walking between a crowd of Hindu worshippers, many of whom are bowing down to touch his feet. Later on, he addresses the crowd in the Hindu temple, starting off by saying “jai shri ram” – a term used to eulogise the Hindu deity, as well as the Hindu priest known as ‘bapu’.<sup>3</sup>

It has been noted that the consecration of statues, be they Buddhist, Hindu, or claimed by any polytheist, as well as the public statements endorsing them, are considered major contraventions to the very foundations of Islam by agreement of Muslims who follow a firmly Abrahamic, monotheistic tradition. This includes laying temple foundations, consecrating places of idol worship, or promoting them.

How the Emirati, and other Gulf governments, managed to mix between proselytising that they are the champions of Tawhīd, or monotheism, whilst doing what Muslims agree contravenes Tawhīd has baffled Muslims.

During the eventual conquest of Makkah, the Prophet (sall Allahu alayhi wa sallam) removed around 365 idols standing in and around the very Ka’bah that Muslims circumbulate today, bringing back Abrahamic monotheism throughout Arabia. ....

In an explicit and authentic Hadith, the Prophet Muhammad (sall Allahu alayhi wa sallam) later saw Amr being dragged through the hellfire as punishment for introducing Shirk into the city of Makkah and the Arabian Peninsula. Allāh also says in the Qur’ān: “...So, avoid the uncleanness of idols and avoid false statement. Be people of pure natural belief in Allāh, not associating anything else with Him. As for anyone who associates others with Allāh, it is as though he had fallen from the sky, and the birds had seized him and carried him away or the wind had dropped him in a distant place.”

(End of report)

When can understand that when the Headquarters of Islam is being polluted with the worst act of treason, namely idols of shirk, Qiyaamah cannot be in the too distant future. Only Imaam Mahdi (Alayhis salaam) and Nabi Isaa (Alayhis salaam) will be able to establish the Law of Allah Ta’ala on earth. Currently we are in the era about which Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) said:

“Then there will dawn an age when the one who holds on to the Deen will be like one who is holding a burning coal.”
