THE NNB CARTEL'S 'CENTENARY' FUNCTION A HUGE FLOP

While Reverend Abraham Bham, the Cross-Worshipper, is at pains to convey the idea of his mock 'centenary' function being an event of the Muslim Ummah of South Africa, the reality on the ground testifies that this merrymaking party of the NNB Juhala is a huge flop.

Not a single Ulama body of South Africa has been a participant in this haraam, deceptive function. Not a single Darul Uloom has participated. The very itinerary issued by the NNB Cranks reveals the total lack of Muslim support for the merrymaking haraam function falsely and deceptively described as a 'centenary' celebration which in any event is alien to Islam.

The miserable organizers of this 'centenary' function in desperation were crawling and scrounging for the support of Ulama to present a facade of popularity. But their attempts to gain the support of the Ulama were rebuffed. They attempted to rope in individual Aalims, but failed.

They attempted to gain the support of Shaikh Awwaamah, a well-known Syrian Aalim now stationed in Turkey. NNB Clique invited Shaikh Awaamah, but he declined the invitation. Then the NNB requested that the Shaikh should send his son. This too was refused. The bogus NNB begged the honourable Shaikh to at least send a written message which would be read at the merrymaking party. This too was refused.

The NNB invited the liberal Mufti Taqi. He too declined despite the fact that he participates in these kinds of mock haraam celebrations. The NNB Cartel was resolutely snubbed and boycotted by the Ulama of South Africa.

The Jamiatul Ulama Transvaal was founded by the senior orthodox Ulama of the Sunnah in 1923 and the headquarters remained in Mia's Farm until 1991. When the modernist zindeeq, Reverend Bham and his moron cronies came aboard, the old Jamiat became extinct. Not a semblance of Jamiatul Ulama Transvaal is discernable in the NNB outfit of Juhala and Zanaadaqah. They are perpetrating massive deception and despicable falsehood with then canard of them being the Jamiatul Ulama Transvaal.

The total absence of the Ulama of South Africa from the haraam merrymaking party of the Reverend & Co. is more than adequate evidence for the total flop of the mock 'centenary' celebration. The despicable canard of the Reverend & Co representing the Muslim community of South Africa is also conspicuously exposed by the huge flop.

The NNB Juhala have no relationship with the Deen. They have become aliens to Islam. That they have deracinated their Imaani bearings is amply illustrated by these rascals having closed the Musaajid, abolishing Jumuah and the daily Fardh Salaat in the Musaajid, and by their displacement of many acts of the Sunnah to be substituted by brazen acts of the Covid Kufr shaitaan.

The Mal-oon characters of the NNB Juhala outfit are insane an intoxicated in their pursuit for leadership and recognition. The mad desire for leadership is motivated by the monetary lust and craving. In the wake of shaitaani 'leadership' comes the haraam boodle. While the crave is also for public acclaim, name and fame, the primary objective is the boodle. Hubb-e-Jah (Love for fame) Hubb-e-Maal (Love for money) have ruined these rascals. They have exchanged their Imaan for the jeefah (carrion) of the dunya.

Every capillary in their bodies is saturated with the mad desire for money and name. Although it is most lamentable, it must be accepted as a reality because Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) had predicted such satanic insanity that will permeate the entire body of Muslims. Our Nabi (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) said in this regard:

"Soon will there be such people in my Ummah in whom the lusts (of the nafs) will permeate their bodies such as the (disease) of rabies which enters every vein and joint, leaving nothing (of the joints and veins untouched by the disease)."
