SANHA'S HARAAM CARRION

100% HARAAM

Allah Ta'ala says in the Qur'aan Majeed:

“O People! Eat from the earth (food) which is Halaal and Tayyib (lawful, pure and wholesome), and do not follow in the footsteps of Shaitaan (by consuming carrion and haraam foods). Verily, he is your open enemy.”

(Al-Baqarah, Aayat 168)

“O People of Imaan! Eat of the Tayyibaat (Wholesome and Halaal foods) which We have provided for you, and be grateful (make Shukr), if indeed you worship Him.”

(Al-Baqarah, Aayat 172)

“Verily, We have ennobled the progeny of Aadam, and We have sustained them on the land and the ocean, and We have provided them with Tayyibaat and bestowed superiority to them over numerous of Our creation.”

(Al-Israa', Aayat 70)

There are numerous Qur'aanic Aayaat and Ahaadith, and innumerable Narrations of the Auliya in every age emphasizing the imperative importance of halaal and tayyib food for moral purification and spiritual elevation. Even one morsel of haraam and even mushtabah (doubtful) food impregnates the spiritual heart with a darkness and hardness which weaken the spiritual resolve to combat evil and sin. Addiction to haraam carrion eliminates in entirety spiritual resolve (Roohaaniyat).

But in this era of CARRION, vile, satanic outfits such as SANHA, are feeding the unwary and ignorant Muslim community with such filth and carrion which may not be fed to even dogs according to the Shariah. It is even doubtful if vultures will eat the rotten, diseased, carrion chickens which SANHA and its illegitimate cohorts certify as 'halaal'. It is indeed lamentable that the Imaan of Muslims has become so horribly desensitized that they feel no pangs of conscience when they devour the diseased carrion certified by SANHA.

The satanically killed chickens certified by SANHA are 100% HARAAM. There is a mountain of evidence damning this vile shaitaani entity which has destroyed the Imaan of innumerable ignorant Muslims with its certification of carrion. The chickens killed by Rainbow and all other commercial killing facilities of the kuffaar are HARAAM because:

(1) The very first fundamental requisite for the validity of Thabah (Islamic Slaughter) is recitation of Tasmiyah on each animal/chicken at the time of slaughter. This very first, fundamental demand of the Shariah is not observed, and CANNOT be observed. The devil's system of killing which prevails at the killing facilities of the kuffaar totally precludes the fulfilment of the fundamental requisite of Tasmiyah. There is a volume of evidence to prove this. Insha-Allah, the evidence shall again be published.

(2) Aggravating and compounding SANHA's villainy of HARAAM certification is lack of supervision. Shaitaan himself is able to testify and he may do so in Qiyaamah, that neither was the Tasmiyah obligation fulfilled nor was there valid Shar'i supervision of the kuffaar's brutal killing facilities. Insha-Allah, this aspect shall also be further explained in subsequent articles.

(3) More aggravation is the sheer brutality which commences from the day the unfortunate chicken is born until the day that it is mercilessly and brutally put to death.

The killing system in vogue at all chicken-killing plants is horribly brutal, and is termed Shareetatush Shaitaan (Slaughter of the Devil) by Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam). The horrid, cruel satanic killing system which produces diseased carrion, is HARAAM from beginning to ending – from A to Z. There is not a single facet or aspect of the killing system prevalent at Rainbow which complies with the Shariah. How is it ever possible for such a devilish system of killing animals to ever produce halaal, tayyib meat?

There is an imperative need for Muslims, to wean themselves from the satanic addiction of devouring diseased, rotten, haraam carrion chickens certified by the Agent of Iblees, SANHA. This carrion causes cancer, heart problems and many other diseases confirmed by non-Muslim experts of the medical and scientific fraternity. The importance of halaal tayyib food for our Imaan is of such a lofty and demanding degree that Allah Ta'ala commanding His Rusul (Messengers/Nabis) says in the Qur'aan Majeed:

“O Rusul! Eat Tayyibaat (halaal, pure and wholesome food), and do deeds of virtue.”

(To be continued, Insha-Allah)
