UTTER SHAMELESS AND OBSCENE SATANIC ‘INTIMACY’ TALKS

Question

A doctor and a molvi are organising a gathering which they call ‘Unveiling Intimacy in Islam’. Their discussion will revolve around sex, sexual aids and the most intimate bedroom scenes. Are such gatherings permitted in Islam? Should we attend these gatherings?

Answer

Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) said: “Haya (shame/modesty) is a branch of Imaan.” Haya is integral to Imaan. Absence of Haya signifies lack of Imaan. The less Imaan a person has, the greater will be his/her degree of shamelessness and obscenity. This is the disease from which the doctor and the molvi are suffering.

Of all animals the most shameless is the pig. Those who organize talks of the absolutely appalling and obscene kind as these shayaateenul ins are doing have no Imaan. They are not Muslims. They are Munaafiqs parading themselves as Muslims.

It should be understood that we are in times in proximity to Qiyaamah. According to the predictions of Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam), immodesty, shamelessness, obscenity and immorality will become so rampant that people will fornicate in broad daylight on the public streets. Obviously for this to happen, there have to be introductory steps to acclimatize people so that fornication in the streets becomes an accepted norm.

One of these introductory steps for public zina is the zina gathering of the doctor and the molvi. Their talk is pure ZINA. Only zaanis and zaaniyaat have sufficient shamelessness to participate in such a vile, satanic and obscene gathering.

May Allah Ta’ala save us from these Imaan-destroying disasters which are incrementally developing in the Muslim community.
