ANOTHER U.K. SISTER'S LAMENT AGAINST THE PHILANDERING 'MUFTIS' & 'MOLVIS'

Another Sister from U.K writes:

Assalamu Alaykum,

I am also a sister from the UK and live in the vicinity of the UK Mufti and sister. He is a lone man who sits in his office and causes trouble from there. A lot of locals have come forth with complaints about him but there is no one to complain to. Ulama rub each others backs and protect each other. It doesn't matter if he's wronged a man, or a woman, he has not been casted aside like before. Now he is being promoted.

As for his approval of mixed events, he has been a long term attendee of mixed events and has spoken about the presence of female and the availability of women. He very well knows what he is doing.

The thing is, despite the complaints of numerous people against him, no one wants his downfall. Everyone wants him to follow true Islam. They don't even want his apology. They want him to stop misleading the Ummat at large. Instead, so many are now opening up to his beliefs and this is where a lot of people are becoming entangled in haram.

Women do not dress as tafilat. They wear their best clothing and look attractive. They wear colourful clothes and do up their faces. There is no way anyone can think it is permissible, but he is trying his best to make sure people do.

His words have no valid basis and have opened the doors to fitnah.

The complaint from families is that they speak to our daughters, they take photos with them and sit close to them, whilst they protect the honour of their wives at home, who are covered head to toe and not allowed out. They invite sisters to relationships complaining that their wives are horrible people, who do not give them intimacy but the reality is that they work very hard and submit to their husband but even then, who would want to be intimate with such foul characters? They are aware of their husband's misdeeds (Muftis), they are repulsed by them. This is a trick of the book the Muftis use and our sisters should be well aware of it. We have had many many complaints like this regarding many Muftis and Molvis, this is why they should not be attending their events at all, and should pose questions through a mahram.

Our location was known for its Ulama and Huffaz, known as a mubarak place. However we now have many Scholars who are having haram relationships with our sisters. This is because we trust our daughters to attend events, we allow them to prowl the streets. The reality is not just the average joey falling into zina but anyone and everyone. Even amongst our people we are not safe from such evil but this Mufti is confusing the people because he is throwing photos of other Ulama doing it. People know it is wrong but they start to think: they can't ALL be wrong? There must be some leeway. This is how they are changing deen.

His students also attend mixed events, being nasheed artists and whatnot. This county has changed from a humble abode, to mixed events in the perimeters of the Masjids. The Scholars have become robbers, robbers of money they don't need and robbers of dignity of our sisters. They have become abusers. This is in my county alone. Imagine when these Muftis travel around the world, what they are doing.
