time Molvis /Alims sweep the evil under the carpet? Why do they not weed out the evil in their own institutions as is the latest case with those Abusers in Durban?

The Majlis is right. The primary fault is the Parents. They are the ones responsible for destroying the lives of these young Children by handing them over to the Wolves in Sheep's clothing.

Comment

The Madrasah and Musjid trustees believe that they will bring disrepute to their institutions if the evil perpetrations of the molvis and teachers are exposed. They are more concerned with their own fictitious image and imaginary reputation than the lives, and morality of the children entrusted to be under their supervision.

Thus, by sweeping the filth under the carpet, they believe that the awful stench will remain concealed. Their stupidity and dishonesty do not allow their brains to function correctly. They fail to understand that the evil and foul stench of Ustaadh immorality is increasing by retaining the services of the sex maniacal teachers. Filth cannot be hidden for too long. The carpet will not be able to contain the deluges of filth repeatedly swept under it.

It is the imperative obligation of the trustees and molvis in charge of the institutions to immediately dismiss the maniacs and notify other institutions of the disease from which the molvi/ustadh is suffering to ensure that he is not employed by another Madrasah and that children are not placed under his wing.

Such a diseased person should go and cut grass or wash cars for a living or do some other mundane job. One major problem is that some of the trustees themselves are maniacs of this kind, and in general they are corrupt fussaag and fujjaar.

Children should NEVER be allowed to go with teachers, molvis and ustaadhs on outings and programmes which they deceptively advertise with deeni colours
