Question

Will it be permissible for an Aalim of the Haqq to participate in Ansaar Foundation's Hajj Seminar if he will only deliver his bayaan and thereafter immediately leave without joining in the merrymaking activities?

ANSWER

It is highly irregular and not permissible for an Aalim of Haqq to enhance the status and to accord credibility to an assembly of deviates with his presence. Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) forbade being present at a gathering of the Ahl-e-Baatil. Mere presence without even active participation at a gathering of baatil is also impermissible.

The 'hajj' seminar is a mockery of the Deen. It is in emulation of a troupe of western clowns mounting and descending the stage, one after the other to deliver his/her disgorgement in the name of the Deen. From whence did they acquire this western kuffaar methodology of imparting ta'leem of Deeni masaa-il? It is a huge merrymaking farce. This clownish style makes clowns of the speaker at the baatil seminar. It is among the many spiritual diseases from which the Ulama of today suffer. Their objective is the dunya, not the Deen. Even the proclamation of the Haqq in methods which conflict with the Shariah is not permissible.

Hajj masaa-il should be acquired in the tareeqah that has come down to us from the earliest era of Islam. Furthermore, the Ulama-e-Haqq should understand that the Ansaar Foundation with its radio shaitaan, its shaitaani souk, etc. is a clique of deviates whose objective is never the Deen. It just does not behove Ulama-e-Haqq to be associated with an organ of baatil which is an Agent of Shaitaan.

What Shariah basis is there for inviting women into the public domain to proffer a smattering of Hajj teachings when they are not allowed to come to the Musjid for even Fardh Salaat? What Shariah basis is there for men to sit listening to Apas on a stage disgorging some titbits under the Hajj cover when these Apas should be within the precincts of their homes attending to the role Allah Ta'ala has created for them? Indeed, the men who draw females out from their homes with 'deeni' bait are immoral agents of Iblees, and all who participate in the haraam 'hajj' seminar are partisans of Shaitaan. The motivation for these types of haram seminaries, conferences, and the like is riya, ujub and takabbur.

Practically, these vile males and the lewd women participants are all in denial of the Qur'aan and Sunnah, and the worse dimension of their denial is that they are perpetrating their haraam villainy in the name of the Deen. They are like the vile scoundrel who recites Bismillaah when eating pork.
