‘ARCHERY’? A STUNT TO LURE GIRLS INTO THE PUBLIC A STUNT OF DARUSH SHAITAAN

Question

My 13 year old daughter wants to join the archery class/club offered by Darul Ihsan. In these times of crime, it will assist in self-defence, and above all it will be instrumental in reviving a Sunnah. However, some family members are objecting and saying that a girl should not be doing this type of sport. What is the correct view of the Shariah?

Answer

Much Aql (intelligence) is not a requisite for comprehending the Shar’i status of this shaitaani stunt being organized by a shaitaani entity in Durban, namely Darush Shaitaan (the House of the Devil), parading as ‘darul ihsan’. In simple issues within the ambit of the understanding of all Muslims (the awaam), Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) has provided a simple prescription, and that is: “Seek a fatwa from your heart”.

If the seeker of the truth is genuine and sincerely desires to understand and follow the directive of the Shariah, his heart will provide the correct directive and direction to adopt.

The ‘Sunnah’ dimension’ associated with archery vis-à-vis females is a shaitaani deception which modernist deviates such as Darush Shaitaan employ to lure girls out of their homes. Undoubtedly, archery (the bow and arrow), and all forms of weapons of Jihad are within the scope of the Sunnah, but to regard it as a sport is a kuffaar conception, and to lure women from their homes to indulge in the ‘archery’ sport is pure nafsaaniyat and shaitanaiyat. It is bereft in entirety of virtue. In the form it is being manipulated for luring young girls out of their homes, it is a sin of major magnitude.

Resort to your Aql and you will understand that the Sunnah of Salaat is light years ahead and vastly of greater importance than the Sunnah of archery which is not a Masnoon act of ritual ibaadat. Then let your Aql answer: Is it permissible for girls to go to the Musjid to perform Fardh and Sunnah Salaat? If the Aql has not been deranged with modernism and deviance, it will respond without the slightest hesitation that it is not permissible for females to go to the Musjid for Salaat.

Now when it is haraam for females to go to even the Musjid for Salaat, then by what dimension of Imaani logic will it ever be permissible for girls to come out of their homes and proceed to some mal-oon venue for practising the ‘sport’ of archery? The simple Response of the Shariah is that it is haraam for girls to leave their homes to indulge in a 'sport' organized in the name of the Deen by males who are smitten by inordinate carnal lust, hence their emphasis is perpetually on luring females from their home sanctuaries to participate in some confounded women's activity offered under a satanic 'deeni' licence.

Among the signs of Qiyaamah, according to the Hadith is "that the dunya will be acquired/pursued with the amal (deed) of the Deen." The licence will be an 'amal of the deen' whilst the objective will be worldly and nafsani. In this 'archery' stunt, the Hadith pertaining to the virtues of archery are presented as the licence and basis for luring girls out of their home to initiate the shaitani process of denuding the girls of their Imaani Haya. When there is no licence of the Shariah for girls to attend the Musjid for Salaat, how can it ever be permissible for them to emerge from their homes in flagrant denial of the Qur'aanic Prohibition for the sake of indulging in a sport? This is another cog in the pernicious plot of the Yahood and Nasaara to destroy the Deen via Habaailus Shaitaan (the Traps of Iblees). This designation was given to women by Allah Ta'ala on the occasion when shaitaan was expelled from the heavens. In response to his supplication for tools and traps to peddle his wares and trade of deception on earth, Allah Ta'ala, granting his dua, said: "Women will be your Traps (Habaiklush Shaitaan)."

All deviates who bootlick the Yahood and Nasaara, especially those such as these House of the Devil deviates who had closed the Musaajid, prohibited Salaat and had introduced a host of kufr Satanist covid protocols, aid in the achievement of shaitani objectives via the means of Habaailush Shaitaan. This silly 'archery' stunt is another shaitani deception in the mega plot to destroy Islam.

Regarding the 'self-defence' chimera, this is another shaitani ploy to accord permissibility for the haraam emergence of girls from their homes to participate in an activity which the Shariah/Sunnah has not designed and intended for them. How is a woman supposed to defend herself with a bow and arrow against a felon who makes a sudden, unexpected attack on her in her home or when she is driving a vehicle if she happens to be one of those shameless tablighi members of the Makshufaat clique who have no qualms about abandoning the Imaani haya with which she was blessed at the time of her birth?

Will a woman in her home or while engaged in haraam driving, or while attending to a legitimate matter outside her home be equipped with a bow and arrow. And, how will she activate her defence with her archery 'expertise' when the attack is at close range, right on top of her? There is sense in claiming that she will be able to defend herself if she has a gun tucked under her jilbaab, but it is unintelligent and stupid to say that she will be able to defend herself with a bow and arrow which is at home while she is behind the wheel of a car. Thus, there is no merit whatsoever in the 'self-defence' argument. With this stupidity, the devil's attempt is to deceive and trick morons into the idea that their so-called archery stunt is Sunnah.

Luring girls of 9 years and 15 years out of their homes for indulgence in sport is a satanically inspired ploy for wrecking their haya. Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) said: "Woman is Aurah. When she emerges (from home) Shaitaan casts surreptitious glances at her". That is, her entire being is an object of concealment, and shaitaan always lies in ambush for her. His best opportunity of ensnaring her is when she is most vulnerable, and that is when she emerges into the public domain in flagrant violation of the Qur'aan Majeed to remain within the safety of the home sanctuary.

The claim of 'reviving the sunnah' with this satanic stunt, is massive deception. The Sunnah cannot be revived with haraam methods. Just as it is haraam to utilize haraam methods such as television, video, facebook, etc. for propagating the Deen, so too is it haraam to use haraam methods to revive the Sunnah.

The truth is that all these morons and deviates who utilize haraam media under Deeni guise are insincere. They have no intention of gaining the Pleasure of Allah Ta'ala. The Deen is furthest from their copro-brains. In fulfilment of the Hadith, they are merely presenting the Deen as a pretext for achieving their despicable worldly and nafsani goals.

THIS ARCHERY CLUB IS HARAAM FOR GIRLS. IT IS A PROJECT OF IBLEES.
