The Majlis

21 Muharram 1447 – 17 July 2025

BEWARE OF THE AGENT OF IBLEES – THE FAASIQ-FAAJIR IBN ADAM KAWTHAR OF UK

This Iblees-incarnate jaahil, faasiq, faajir, ‘mufti’ from the UK is now darkening and polluting the Muslim community of South Africa. He is being hosted by the shaitaani clique of juhala, the NNB Cartel masquerading as JUSA. He is of the feather of Reverend Abraham Bham with the dangerous difference of being a greater threat to the Imaan of the ignorant and unwary than even the cross-worshipping Reverend Abraham Bham.

For a better understanding of the Ibleesi credentials of the ‘sexual’ expert ‘mufti’, we reproduce the following Naseehat emanating from the UK:

Assalamu Alaikum respected Hadhrat,

Previously an email or emails have been sent to The Majlis regarding the shenanigans of the person mentioned in the poster, by several brothers and sisters.

In our adulthood we have found that people here were not the only victims of this person, he had been hurting people for many years before.

Unfortunately after all these years, he's found fame via social media. Unfortunately this has now brought him to South Africa.

Alhamdulillah, several people have asked regarding the fake Muftis, and Salafis that have been coming to South Africa recently. That means people are aware still of what misguidance is, unlike the UK. May Allah Ta'ala keep this group of people on pure Deen until the end.

We always say the light of ilm and amal has transferred from India to South Africa, with the group of Ulama who will not compromise on Deen. I apologise on behalf of the UK for the darkness that is coming from here. Although South Africa has also been sending Bham here. We do not accept this exchange deal.

Unfortunately I can't say the details of what this person has been up to. I can say I have witnessed his wife in utter turmoil, and I am not the only one. To the extent she has been telling people about her own husband's doings. People need to be aware to keep their daughters and sons away from him.

Ulama will want factual statements. Unfortunately I can't bring out the sisters, as they are often shamed whereas these fake Muftis walk freely and continue to tour the world, so let us look at his own statements.

It's difficult to find because these people try to say the haq and write it too, but their actions are the opposite. Their actions behind the scenes even worse, but the unsuspecting world continue to platform such people.

People must know, that Islam is clear. We have our ways in books, we continuously refer to these books.

This person was a reject from his own Darul Uloom. He didn't enjoy the same invites to do talks everywhere in the UK like others.

Instead he went overseas to these weird concert type events like the GPU events, where it's mixed. USA and Canada were places where mixed events were the norm, he found his home there. They were not the norm in the UK. Now that's changed.

Unfortunately he found a way to creep into the old school deobandi type community (remember, the true deobandi ways don't really exist anymore, especially not in the UK, people just have the 'look').

Unfortunately he studied a bit by Mufti Taqi. Before, Mufti Taqi didn't even have that much fame here. But as time went by his popularity grew to what seems now as extreme extents.

We hear and see that the rulings coming from Mufti Taqi and his family members, such as banking and a whole host of other rulings are not in line with Deen. That people in Pakistan can't even say anything because Mufti Taqi said it, so it has to be true, even though so many of these fatwas are against what we've all learnt. This is coming from the words of an Aalim in Pakistan.

And because Mufti Taqi is the main person it seems in our communities (actually we distance ourselves from these communities now), then everyone wants Mufti Taqi. Everyone wants to meet him, to speak with him, to be close to him.

But they can't. It is not easy to. Somehow this 'Mufti' in the poster has found a place by him, and so now the emasculated Ulama of today, want to suck up to him to get closer to Mufti Taqi. They platform him. They are friends with him. They are all a mess.

Why?

Our Deen is clear. What did we learn?

Keep the gaze down
Do not freemix

Let's just start with these two.

For many years we felt anger towards this 'Mufti', how he's getting away with misguiding people and extracting from women, but Allah Ta'ala never forgets.

We live in a time where there are Ulama and brothers who are calling out his misguidance, so now it's easy to find the evidence. Unfortunately it's mostly on the medium called X.

Can you look out the opposite gender without lust? What is he trying to say? What utter nonsense.

He taught the 40 Ahadith of Imam Nawawi rahmatullahi 'alaih to women face to face. What would Imam Nawawi (RA) say?

And is there one ruling for Ulama and one for the awaam?

Remember the book Hadhrat published, exposing the rubbish these people came out with. And this anonymous document that floated in between.

Who wrote the document?

Oh, if it wasn't the very 'Shaykh' 'Mufti' Muhammad ibn Adam. Don't forget to add 'al-Kawthari'.

This person used to stay in his little office in Leicester and now inflicting our brothers and sisters in South Africa.

Deen is here for our guidance to Allah Ta'ala, our salvation, our protection.

If the people of South Africa want to put their women in front of fake Muftis like this, go ahead. Don't complain after.

If men want to put themselves in front of him and platform him, don't complain after when you wake up wondering why you've hugged a woman. This is what it leads to.

Don't be fooled. Don't look at titles. Don't look at who they hang around with.

Yes, Alhamdulillah thanks to Hadhrat and the people of South Africa still wanting to follow the real Islam, we are aware of Bhams cross worshipping, going to the court to close our Masajid. Indeed this is a terrible and stupid thing to do! And these people are all in one friends circle. The friendship for misguidance.

Hadhrats 'harsh' words that people cry about are there for protection. These people have trampled upon our beautiful Deen so much, corrupted our sisters, and even brothers, in more ways than you know. If a person wants to lack brain cells, leave the following of Shari'ah, practise for dajjaal's coming, go ahead. Attend the events of those who want to not lustfully lust after your women. Go ahead. Even if they had no lust, that isn't the ruling is it?

Remember he enforced that freemixing book. Don't forget.

But perhaps people want to freemix so they're happy to have him.

See the hypocrisy.

He endorses a book that is what his own thoughts are but they try to act clever and won't outright say it.

Calling women out to a retreat. Why do they need to be near 'esteemed' scholars? I have no trust in words like this, the only thought is they want to be in bed with them or extracting money from them.

These are the endorsers 'Mufti' ibn Adam is endorsing with.

Do we see a pattern? They seem to enjoy having women right in front of them.

Often engaging in photography and videography is a red flag in itself, but we've normalised it, so that warning is out. Then sitting in front of women is a red flag, but we've normalised it, so that's out the question too.

He should know better. He already hurt his family before, but he's been allowed to stay on and teach there. He was left in his little corner, as over the years the Ummah has weakened in speaking out. Seen as those who divide. In actual fact, those dividing are the ones bringing a version of Islam neither us nor our forefathers had ever heard of before.

Remember, he and others like him sit in front of women with their flashy words and technical terms to make out something is right when it is wrong, whilst their wives are covered head to toe to finger to eyes, not leaving the home unless with them. But it's okay for all the other women to leave the home without even dressing Islamically.

Choose wisely.

Wassalam
