THE COMPOUND KUFR AND NIFAAQ OF ABRAHAM RASOL

Ebrahim Rasool

1 h · 👤

Happy Birthday to Archbishop Desmond Tutu.
Deservedly out of sight, but never out of mind or heart.
We owe people like the Arch a huge debt of gratitude.
On reflecting on his lifetime of service & sacrifice, when he was in the frontline of confronting the apartheid enemy, or in the new SA, when he confronted the venality in the ANC, he never wavered from truth & justice. I was asked in a recent conference whether I theologically & Islamically believed that Tutu is not deserving of paradise, I could only say that by the evidence of my experience, Tutu deserved paradise more than an Imam or Sheikh or Mufti who said the right formula, but chose not to be a witness for justice; who memorized the Quran but chose not to live it; and was safe in the sanctity of the mosque, while people like Tutu, Boesak, Beyers, Guru Krishna, Slovo we're confronting evil! May Allah reward Desmond Tutu abundantly, InshaAllah!

(End of the Compound KUFR-NIFAAQ)

Since this KUFR is so glaringly and violently in conflict with the very Foundations of Imaan, and since even the most ignorant Muslim understands this compound KUFR without having to tax his brains, there is no need for further comment.
