THE BLATANT SHAITANIYAT OF DARUSH SHAITAAN (THE SO-CALLED DARUL IHSAN OF DURBAN)

Question: Darul Ihsan (i.e. Darush Shaitaan - The Majlis) is collecting Zakaat funds from which it intends making contributions to a Hindu secular school. Is this permissible? Only the banking details of the Zakaat account are provided by Darul Ihsan (Darush Shaitaan).

Answer

Nothing better is to be expected from an entity consisting of characters who have proven with their haraam misdeeds their wanton disregard for the Shariah. It is HARAAM to contribute any kind of funds to the Hindu school. Even interest money may not be given to them. It is blatant kufr to give Zakaat funds to the Hindu schools.

However, the contributors are more blameworthy than ex-mufti Bhayat. They are not so stupid to understand that it is haraam to contribute to a Hindu school. Thus, they are complicit in this villainous crime against Allah Ta'ala. Their Zakaat is obviously not discharged.

Question:

Please comment on Mufti Zubair Bhayat's feasting and making merry from a table with ghair mahram faasiqah females. Is there any scope for such participation. See the picture. It is a shocking revelation of what this mufti is up to. Yet he is a khalifah of Hadhrat Hakeem Akhtar (Rahmatullah alayh)

Answer

You are mistaken. He was once upon a time a khalifah. He has been stripped of his khilaafat on account of his public indulgences in haraam. He has flagrantly displaced scorn for the Ahkaam of the Shariah, hence the fisq and fujoor in which he is trapped should be understandable. He is now firmly enmeshed in the tentacles of Iblees.

Question

Some people and entities are hellbent to justify the evil and kufr environment of universities. "Daughters of the Ummah" is a project of Darul Ihsan (Darush Shaitaan). Its Instagram page uses a snippet from a lecture by Maulana Yunus Patel (Rahmatullah alayh) to rubber stamp their evil scheme of luring Muslim girls from their homes and casting them into the hubs of immoral fitnah.

Answer

Maulana Yunus Patel (Rahmatullah alayh) did not promote universities. The following extracts from his book, Removing the Safety Net, testify to the blatant LIES of Darush Shaitaan. Maulana Patel wrote:

"The environment at the schools and colleges, even here in South Africa, is such which destroys not only the morality and chastity of our children, but also destroys their Imaan. Besides the increase in adultery and homosexuality, atheism is also becoming more and more rife. Our hearts bleed and these are the sons and daughters of Nabi (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) who have become easy prey to the enemies of Islam."

"We send our children to the universities and colleges, and instead of becoming educated cultured human beings, many are churned out with bad morals and with degenerative characters. The environment is a breeding ground for rebellion against Allah Ta'ala, rebellion against parents....."

"How many young children were introduced to cigarettes and drugs at the school by bigger boys? There are so many young children – 5 / 6 / 7 years of age – younger or older – that are viewing pornography by being exposed to it by other students at the schools".

"What do the parents say? 'Maulana, she cannot get married now. She has to complete her university studies, then only can she talk about marriage...'

"The university studies and degrees take priority. This is more important than her respect, her chastity, her modesty..."

And the parents believe that in the interim, whilst studying, this love of hers for that particular boy will die down.

"Is this intelligence? Where is the aql of the parents?"

"We may ask the question: Why do we find this condition in some of our children, despite their education? Because the knowledge obtained was without Allah Ta'ala."

"Knowledge was to be acquired, seeking noble objectives: Recognition of Allah Ta'ala, Love of Allah Ta'ala, and what would naturally follow: Obedience to Allah Ta'ala. The knowledge which takes away from obedience to Allah Ta'ala and noble conduct cannot be categorized as knowledge."

Darush Shaitan and other devils of similar ilk suffer from the malady of citing statements out of the context in which they were made. They malign Maulana Yunus Patel who is no longer here to rebuff the haraam rubbish being attributed to him. They do so with deliberate intent of misleading ignorant Muslims. In this shaitani process they lose their Imaan.

Only atheist munaafiqeen masquerading as Muslims love to send their children, especially daughters to these 'educational' brothels called universities and colleges. The damage caused by brothels operated by prostitutes is substantially less than the colossal damage to Imaan and Akhlaaq caused by these satanic universities, colleges and schools. Warning these miserable fraudster 'Muslims', the Qur'aan Majeed states:

"Do not follow in the footsteps of shaitaan, Verily, he is your declared enemy. He instructs you with only Fahshaa' (such as university-brothel immorality) and Munkar (evil such as elimination of Imaan taught by these brothel educational institutions)."

Molvis who condone and promote secular schools, colleges and universities have been created to be Hasabu Jahannam (Fuel for Hell-Fire). They have no qualms even if they have to prostitute and sell their mothers and daughters. The La'nat and Ghadab of Allah are in them!
