CLOSURE OF DARUL ULOOM DEWSBURY (U.K)

A Brother from UK commenting on the closure of the Darul Uloom in Dewsbury. Writes:

Allah's Messenger sallallahu alayhi wasallam narrated,

> "Allah does not take away (Deeni) knowledge, by taking it away from (the hearts of) people; but takes it away by the death of (pious) religious learned men till when none of the (pious religious learned) remain; people will then take as their leaders' ignorant persons who when consulted will give their verdict without knowledge. So, they will go astray and will lead the people astray." (Bukhari)

Much is being made regarding the heart-breaking, extremely sad closure of Markaz Darul Uloom in Dewsbury, UK. However, it should not come as any surprise:

"Your leaders are your deeds." (Sayyidunna Hasan Al Basri رحمة الله عليه)

For almost twenty years - a tug of war was underway between Shura and group of Scholars at the Darul Uloom - both of whom were supposedly running the Madrasah 'together' for the Pleasure of Allah Ta'ala.

The school, which in any responsible institution would be viewed and operate, in a kuffar country, as a necessary subservient department and aid to the Madrasah; was used, together with the lives and careers of Talabah, as sacrificial fodder to acquire influence and control over Markaz; and ultimately the huge resources-influence of the hitherto wonderful works-services of Tableegh Jamaat.

Let there be no misunderstanding, all these recent shenanigans in the Darul Uloom are the culmination of a battle over resources, inclination towards kufr/so-called British values and a fair reflection of the deeds of the local community.

Shura Members and Maulvis were fighting over power, fame, glory, influence and finance (Hubbul Dunya)…just like the battle within almost all Masaajid-Makatib-families-clans in our community nowadays.

Asset stripping had started a long time ago - by almost all parties.

Caught in the cross-fire, were innocent Students, a few sincere Asaatizaah-Khuddam-Supporters and members of laity who visited Markaz; either as local Musallees or the sincere person arriving as part of Tableegh Jamaat.

Almost all others, whether in this or other UK Darul Ulooms, majority of visiting Scholars or neighbouring Masajid-Madaris were insincere and unscrupulous in their conduct.

Even the crocodile tears and sorrowful sounding sentiments being shed of late by so-called senior Maulvis fails to cover up the mischievous, wicked, Shaytanic smirks on their faces as they seek to cherry-pick students and benefit from the death of Markaz Darul Uloom.
Hypocrisy at the highest level of academia.

Not one is prepared to call a spade a spade for fear of courting displeasure of rival parties and the local community fully responsible for this epic tragedy.

A lot is being made of the sacrifices and dedication of original founders, supporters and local well-wishers.

They are almost all underground now - Allah Ta'ala will reward them and has spared them the ultimate act of treachery and betrayal by these unscrupulous cretins.

What the community fails to realise - because it is too drowned in its own inequity; is the absence now from Dewsbury of Mehmaan of Rasool sallallahu alayhi wasallam; the disappearance forever now of hundreds of Talabah reciting the Glorious Qur'an; Hadeeth and their presence; all dressed in Islamic Sunnah attire thronging our streets.

Where will the next generation of such accomplished Huffaz, Imams & Maulanas now come from?
From the plethora of superficial part-time Alim-Hifz Class? No chance.

Spare us the sanctimonious nonsense of online lessons or the conduct of Ofsted.

These are all consequential and a drama designed to befool and distract even the whimper of criticism being heard. Dogs bark louder in Dewsbury-Batley; a locality now drowned in emulating and appeasing the kuffar. The former PM Boris Johnson came to this area to sit with local so-called senior Muftis to promote covid vaccines.

'Traitors are punished upon the hands of traitors.'

Locals were no longer willing or prepared to send their talented, intelligent boys for acquisition of Deeni Uloom purely for the Sake of Allah Ta'ala.

No power in the Universe may undermine the Glorious Qur'an and Hadeeth - all those who sincerely serve these fundamentals of Deen are inextricably connected to and receive their nourishment from Office of Nabuwwat sallallahu alayhi wasallam.

When we as a community, ourselves, move away from the Glorious Qur'an and Hadeeth then Allah Ta'ala grants Kufr-Baatil the power to overcome people of Deen.

There was no law during recent Covid Lockdown which stipulated we had to remove copies of Glorious Qur'an from Masaajid shelves - but remove or isolate them we did in almost all local Masaajid.

Those courageous parents who had sacrificed their flesh-blood to the cause of Islam; by placing rocks on their hearts to send their 11-year-old child; from all parts of UK, Europe and the World to become a Haafiz-Alim and those former Asaatizaah-Khuddaam who strove night & day, receiving a pittance in wage, which barely covered their home necessities; must now view with disbelief and heartache the disappearance of sound of Glorious Qur'an and Hadeeth from Dewsbury.

The inheritors and Guests of Rasoolullah sallallahu alayhi wasallam are now leaving within next few days.

The Sunnah attire, clothes, turbans, kitaabs of these Angels will disappear forever now…as it is fast disappearing from the homes of Dewsbury-Batley.

Those who indulged in interfaith menace (and this included many local Maulvis spanning over last decade); asset stripping and who used the Tableegh Jamaat forum to line their own pockets…very shortly will be hauled into the Court of Allah Ta'ala to answer for their misdemeanours.

The rest of Community, drowned in its own mutiny, may now deservedly observe the arrival of even more Shayateen in human form as these Talabaah and handful of sincere Asaatizaah take leave.

The presence of Students of Hifdh, Hadeeth and Fiqh was undoubtedly a blessing for Dewsbury.

Allah Ta'ala shower His Mercies upon all those Mukhliseen who supported the Darul Uloom and its guests in any way over last 40+ years and apprehend all those who played a hand in its destruction.

The locals are ultimately responsible for this sad state of affairs.
There is no injustice in the operation of Allah Ta'ala.
We must all now pay the ultimate price when within a few years there will be a shortage of competent Huffaz-Alim capable of reading all 20 Rakaats in Taraweeh and of leading the Ummah in its Deeni affairs. One of the finest Hifz Class of its era is now being closed forever:

"These are the times, which we rotate amongst them people…" (3:140)

However, signs foreboding closure of Madrasah had been on the wall for a long time; bootlicking of those British Army soldiers who had massacred thousands of Muslims in Iraq-Afghanistan-Syria-Yemen-Libya; the latest bout of gross stupidity being 'Class of 22;' where newly qualified Maulvis posed for photos en-masse in their Bukhari Shareef Classroom in the style of Uni-brothel graduates; whilst certain Asaatizaah & Markaz Graduates once again posed with the interfaith Abrahamic Foundation.

Not to be outdone in treachery, seemingly senile members of Shuraa, unable to even pronounce or remember the Institutes name, announced updates to closure on live TV.

This is the undeniable condition of modern-day Maulvis and Trustees of Masaajid and Madaris.

In the final analysis, the Darul Uloom itself sought protection from such rebellious traitors and prayed for its own closure - a reflection of the rotten state of our community - where internecine disputes, photography, intermingling with Kufr and so called Shaytanic values have become the norm.

As Deeni Uloom departs from our midst, it must be replaced with ignorance, irtidaad and yet more criminality. As local Muslim families were more concerned and prioritised secular education for their children; they must now witness in the near future, these very offspring selling the family-silver to fund their unsustainable rotten kufr lifestyles. We reap what we sow:

"Pity the nation whose people are sheep; whose shepherds mislead them.
Pity the nation whose leaders are liars; whose sages are silenced; whose bigots haunt the airwaves.
Pity the nation that raises not its voice; except to praise (charlatans).
Pity the nation; O pity the people…" (JL)

(End of the Brother's comment)

Understand well that whatever happens is by the decree of Allah Ta'ala. Since this Darul Uloom no longer served the interests of the Deen, Allah Ta'ala decreed its demise. When the A'maal of the Aakhirah are presented as cover for the fulfilment of worldly and nafsaani objectives, then the institution has no Islamic right for existing, hence Allah Ta'ala creates the factors for its termination. This is the fate of the Dewsbury Darul Uloom.

Although the ulama-e-soo' is on the increase in all countries, the U.K. excels in this field of shaitaaniyat. Not a single Voice of the Haqq is heard from Ulama quarters in the U.K. They are the worst kuffaar bootlickers. The demise of the Darul Uloom is the consequence of the bootlicking and shaitaaniyat of the molvis of the Darul Uloom.

A similar fate overhangs almost all Darul Ulooms which have become institutions of baatil in the pursuit of worldly and nafsaani goals. They have abandoned their Waajib obligation of Amr Bil Ma'roof Nahy Anil Munkar for the acquisition of the jeefah (carrion) of this dunya.
