MOLVI ZINA SHENANIGANS THE DAMNABLE OBSERVATIONS OF A U.K. SISTER

A Sister from the U.K. describing the villainous conduct and shaitaani manipulation of the Deen by molvis and muftis, states:

“I have seen articles on the website by subscribers to The Majlis who feel drawn to the so-called 'strict' approach of The Majlis after seeing so much corruption by so-called learned people who keep trampling over the Deen.

I am one such person. Despite growing up in the western idea of free conditions and not coming from a practising background, Allah Ta'ala shows the truth from falsehood, but nowadays we choose to ignore it.

As a teen I saw a number of so called Muftis and Molanas targeting 'young' girls and having long conversations and meetups with them whilst their wives at home were troubled and suspected something. These Molvis have their own offices and Madaaris buildings so they could easily hide what they are doing from their homes, but they could not hide their haraam affairs.

There are such Muftis and Molanas in the UK who claim to be the flag bearers of Muftis like Mufti Taqi and the like. And because the other Ulama of the UK and worldwide hold Mufti Taqi in high esteem, they follow such fake Mufti and Molana representatives in the UK and elsewhere and elevate him too. Hence the deception during covid times as well.

It is not confined to my area, but I remember sisters from other parts of the UK also telling me how the Molvis trapped girls by threatening to expose them. Most of the time they don't need to threaten as the girl already knows her izzat (honour) will be tarnished so she also does not expose such Molvis.

Little did these Molvis know that despite me being able to say anything as a young girl because no one would listen, I will one day grow up and do the job myself.

Mufti Taqi did not openly, from what I recall, mix openly with women years ago. The interview with the female in recent years has paved a new opening for Molvis of today. However his one so-called main go to Molvis in the UK has been attending mixed events abroad for years. Very recently a photo of him teaching a class with men and women and no pardah in between them at all has been circulating online. He is so brazen to do this in public.

If I could reach every single female and tell her to stay away from Molvis like this I would. They are showing in public they can trample over the laws of Allah Ta'ala. Then what will they do in private? I have seen with my own eyes what they can do. All the twitter following using the name of a famous mufti ustad of theirs is an illusion but our brothers and sisters are so weak in mind that they take fame as a daleel for Deen (so and so mufti is doing it, what's wrong?) He is greater for them than the Qur'an and Hadeeth.

Now we are seeing their seniors like Mufti Taqi coming out with absurd fatwas. This is the first time I am reading about it from the recent Majlis newsletter but now if he is saying if there is no fear of fitnah then women can look at Molanas doing Bayans then what hope do we have left?

Will the Ulama who hold him on a high pedestal all over the western world now wake up? Or will they continue with their Ulama worship? Why are they not looking at their notes from Darul Uloom and realising this is in conflict with Qur'an and Hadeeth? If Rasulullah sallallahu 'alayhi wa sallam told his own wives to lower their gaze in front of the blind Sahabi radhiyallahu 'anh, then how in the world can Mufti Taqi come up with such nonsense?

Recently he took back his view on Bukhari khatams and now already he is coming out with a whole new masalah to corrupt the Ummat especially when it comes to pardah and haya. I feel like our ways as a Muslim run on the fuel of haya. When a female conceals herself she protects herself from a lot of evil. When a male looks down he also protects himself but now both will look up - the male looks at the video camera recording him for youtube and the female sits at home watching him because Mufti Taqi has allowed it. Now she will become entrapped by these Molvis quicker and harder as she looks at his face and haya is gone.

They want to make halal all that is haram. My in-laws literally tell us they do not want to visit us because we observe pardah between brothers-in-law and sisters-in-laws. The amount this crushes my husband is so sad to see but he daily brushes it off and continues. His family consists of such so-called Muftis, Molvis and Huffaaz. They will become very happy with the fatwa of Mufti Taqi.

Muftis should realise - the internet, YouTube etc are the outside world so when a female may have haya when she leaves her home and sees men, she does not speak to them but on the internet social media has made the same female and male able to talk freely.

When a female watches the Molvi on her phone on YouTube then whereas before, the Molvi was just a voice, on the receiver or even if she attended a jalsa then she was not able to see him, now this Molvis face is close to hers on her phone. She can see all his features and Shaitaan creates lust and desire. And am I suprised? No because as mentioned before, these same Molvis want their extra haraam relationships and affairs.

If women want to safeguard themselves, they need to stay away from social media scholars, and then further impose on themselves the masalah of staying away from those who appear on YouTube, TV and photography. Leave them to their lives, live your own halal life. These disgusting Molvis will take advantage of females.

Yes the same can be said for non-Ulama, they are also living in haraam but they do not have the deep knowledge of deen. These Muftis and Molvis go and teach every day, do they not feel like hypocrites? How do they teach the Ahadeeth of pardah when they go against it themselves? I can go on forever but the fathers of this Ummat need to step up and intervene in the lives of both sons and daughters even in adulthood. Keep daughters away from these fake sheikhs and make sure sons are not targeting females. They may not be able to do the latter as most of these molvis are married but every muslimah needs to take it on herself to protect herself from these Shaitaans because now Mufti Taqi is opening a whole load of floodgates. The Ummat follows him more than Rasulullah sallallahu 'alayhi wa sallam."

(End of the Sister's letter)

The Majlis is the Haqq. It disseminates nothing but the pure Haqq. It is precisely for this reason that all sincere Muslims, especially the unwary and ignorant ones, are automatically drawn to this Haqq. While initially they cannot understand our attitude of so-called 'harshness and strictness', the Haqq like a magnet draws them to the Deen, and the pure Deen in its unadulterated form is available from The Majlis.

The molvis involved in their acts of zina and immorality will not escape being punished and disgraced in this dunya and the Aakhirah. Hadhrat Muaaz Bin Yahya (Rahmatullah alayh) said: "He who is treacherous to Allah in secrecy, Allah will rip off his veil (of concealment) in public."

Regardless of their efforts to sweep their fujoor (immoral filth) under the rug, Allah Ta'ala will bring it out. The rug will not be able to conceal the deluge of the zina filth perpetrated by these miscreant molvis and muftis who utilize the Deen as a snare to entrap silly and stupid females into their web of fisq and fujoor.

The moral rot and even the kufr of their palpable misinterpretation of the Qur'aan and Ahaadith for providing cover for their egregiously evil shenanigans stinks. No matter how much they will endeavour to conceal their evil, the satanic stench is too over-powering. Their filth does not remain hidden for all time.

The glut of these evil molvis and fake muftis, which includes Mufti Taqi, the imaam of this breed of ulama-e-soo' of this era, has been predicted by Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam). Therefore, despite the grief which these scoundrel molvis cause, this is not a surprising development. It is among the Signs of Qiyaamah which must necessarily come to pass. Among these Signs, the Hadith mentions:

"The dunya will be pursued with the amal of the Aakhirah, and Ilm of the Deen will be pursued for purposes other than the Deen."

The primary repository of this Sign of Qiyaamah in our era is Mufti Taqi who has legalized riba, hence his dalliance, in fact close ties with the riba capitalist kuffaar bankers. He is also the criminal who has opened up the floodgates for pornography with his shaitaani fatwa of pictures being permissible. He has performed this satanic trick of halaalization with the hallucination that 'digital' pictures are not pictures. Even the baboons scoff at and scorn this glaringly stupid, baatil fatwa which every ignoramus understands is palpable nonsense.

The masses drowning in their own ignominy of fisq, fujoor and kufr simply present the likes of these criminal muftis as cover for their own nafsaniyat. In reality they do not follow him and his likes. However, since his (Taqi's) corrupt, stupid, copro fatwas are most appeasing to their nafs, they quickly become his 'followers'. Should he decide to come onto the Haqq, all the followers of the devil will desert him. Truth repels falsehood.

Despite the preponderance of the ulama-e-soo' in this age, the Haqq cannot be extinguished. The Haqq will perpetually prevail. The Qur'aan, assuring us, says:

"And, the Haqq has arrived and baatil has perished, for verily baatil by its very nature perishes."

And, Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) said:

"There will ever remain a Taa-ifah (small group) of my Ummah who will fight on the Haqq until the Day of Qiyaamah. Those who oppose them and do not aid them will not be able to harm them (the Ulama of the Taa-ifah)."

Be rest assured that by the Fadhl of Allah Ta'ala The Majlis is a member of this Taa-ifah-e-Haqq.
