RASCALS AND SCOUNDRELS DEFILING THE LAST TEN MOST AUSPICIOUS NIGHTS OF RAMADHAAN

Question

Calling their nightly programmes ‘Ramadhan Booster’, the NNB (No Name Brand Jamiat) and UUCSA personnel are organizing lectures, late night programmes, qiraa’t programmes and zikr programmes during the last ten nights of Ramadhaan. Are these programmes permissible? What is the basis for these formerly unheard of programmes during the most auspicious Nights of Ramadhaan? Please comment and advise. Is it permissible to attend and participate?

Answer

These programmes do have a basis. The basis is Shaitaan who has gripped and corrupted the brains and hearts of the rascal and scoundrel molvis of the ulama-e-soo’ gang. All the programmes of bid’ah invented by these shayaateenul ins (human devils) are bid’ah and Haraam. It is haraam to defile the glorious and auspicious Nights of Ramadhaan with the nafsani programmes of these scoundrel molvis whose only objective is to gratify the inordinate dictates of their nafs for name and cheap fame.

These scoundrels are pursuing their evil motives under Deeni guise. Allah Ta’ala descends to the First Sama’ every Night of Ramadhaan. Allah Ta’ala calls to His servants to commune with Him and to supplicate for their needs of the dunya and Aakhirah. But these scoundrels are diverting the focus to their merrymaking bid’ah programmes. The baraakaat are greater in the last ten Nights. The Sunnah method of observing these Nights was shown to the Ummah by Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) and the Sahaabah.

These Nights are not occasions for merrymaking, listening to talks and to qiraa't recited by munaafiq qaaris. These Nights have to be spent in silent and solitude Ibaadat. These are Nights when Muslims should commune directly with Allah Ta'ala individually in the Nights in their homes. The merrymaking programmes schemed by the Rubbish scoundrel molvis and munaafiq qaaris are all inspirations of Iblees.

Those who are keen to gain maximum benefit of these wonderful Nights and to gain proximity to Allah Ta'ala, should not ruin the opportunity provided by these Nights. They will ruin the opportunity of gaining the maximum barakaat of these Nights by participating in evil bid'ah practices which have absolutely no basis in the Sunnah.

Muslims are supposed to acquire their guidance from the Salafus Saaliheen of the Khairul Quroon era. The practices introduced thereafter under Deeni guise are evil acts of bid'ah. Is the example of Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) and the Sahaabah not an adequate 'booster' and directive for implementation? Only rubbishes will attend the rubbish programmes of the rubbish scoundrel molvis and munaafiq qaaris.

The Last Ten Nights should be spent in solitude in the homes. Nowadays, it is better to remain at home during these Nights – better than the merrymaking so-called 'i'tikaaf' or mock i'tikaaf organized by molvis who are seeking name and cheap fame.

The radio and television scoundrel molvis are behind these bid'ah haraam programmes which shaitaan has urinated into their brains to deprive Muslims from achieving the benefits of these glorious Nights in the manner in which the Pious people of the Salafus Saaliheen era had observed.

Allah Ta'ala loves those who stand alone in silence in the middle of the Night supplicating to Him. The public programmes are the very antithesis of the Divine Demand for silence and solitude. Undoubtedly we are in the era about which Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) said:

"Then there will dawn an age...when the worst of the people under the canopy of the sky will be their ulama. From them will emerge fitnah and the fitnah will rebound on them."

They are the Rascal and Scoundrel radio and television molvis who had campaigned for the closure of the Musajjid and the suspension of Jum'ah and the Fardh Salaat to lick the boots and hinds of their kuffaar handlers.
