THE BAND OF HAQ

"There will ever remain a band from my Ummah fighting on the Haq until the Day of Qiyaamah. Those who oppose them and those who do not aid them, will not be able to harm them." (Hadith)

PLOT OF USA - ISRAEL

True Muslims will never resort to the vile, brutal satanic and cowardly act of placing bombs in Musjids and in market places even if they happen to be fussaag and fujaar. The explosions in market places and Musjids which are becoming frequent in Pakistan and Afghanistan, are the pernicious perpetrations of the Yahud and Nasaara. The plot is to destabilize the countries thereby facilitating the pillaging and plundering of the wealth of the Muslim countries.

The USA is desperately plotting to regain control of the Bagram airbase in Afghanistan. It requires Bagram because of its proximity to China – just one hour to China according to the Clown, Trump. It is the ideal launching pad for the USA in time of war. Trump has made no secret of his desire of regaining the Bagram airbase.

Since America was defeated on the battlefield after its 22 year aggression in Afghanistan, it withdrew and fled most hurriedly in an extremely disorderly manner abandoning $8 billion of military equipment. Trump has demanded the return of the equipment. However, the Taliban has mockingly rejected the stupid demand of the defeated adversary.

The plot is now to entangle and weaken Afghanistan in a war with Pakistan. This entanglement according to the understanding of Trump will grant the USA the opportunity to grab the Bagram airbase. The current skirmishes between Pakistan and Afghanistan and the bombing of Musajid and marketplaces should be viewed in the light of the plots of the USA.

The USA has recruited munaafiqeen – total munafiqeen/kuffaar – to execute the evil dirty pernicious acts of sabotage thereby providing sufficient cause for Pakistan to continue the war with Afghanistan.

Furthermore, America has bought over the Pakistan military which has become a

THE CARDBOARD/PAPER 'SUPER' POWER

"For every nation there is a fixed appointed time. When that time arrives, it will not be advanced nor delayed a moment."

(Qur'aan)

This Aayat is a recurring refrain in the Qur'aan Majeed. No power – no empire lasts forever although the morons in domination do not realize this lesson of history. The USA today is supposed to be a super power. If ever it was, it has outlived the attributes of a genuine superpower. In reality the USA is a cardboard or a paper 'super power'.

The Clown Trump frequently with his rodomontade attitude very arrogantly advertises that the USA is the super power of this era and that it has the finest, best and greatest military, airforce, navy, etc. etc.

But this moron clown is too stupid to understand that his country is a cardboard or a paper 'super power'. Three years of incessant, murderous aerial bombing by the USA – Israel is merely the puppet of America – bombing in which the entire enclave of Gaza has been devastated and demolished – the USA and Israel have miserably failed

THE WAR AND THE VIEWS

Question

My brother and I were discussing the Iran-USA/Israel war. The summary of my brother and his question is:

In Pakistan, generally the "popular Ulama" are publicly favouring a victory for the Shiah, but as Al-Haq has stated, many confuse the issue, blur the lines and appear to present them as a part of the Ummah just with some "ikhthilaafaat" (difference of opinion). They simply never proclaim the kufr of Shiahs explicitly. So overall the result of their statements are that the aqaaid (beliefs) of the masses continue to become even more corrupted with regard to Shiahs. As Al-Haq has said clearly, the issue of their kufr and being baatil should not be conflated with the political support of Ulama-e-Haqq, but it seems many if not most Ulama are intentionally or unintentionally sweeping the issue of kufr/aqaaid under the carpet, unlike Al-Haq.

On the other hand, some Ulama-e-Haqq hold and proclaim openly the same views as Hadhrat that this is a case of baatil vs baatil, kuffaar vs kuffaar, and that there should be no doubt as to the kufr and abhorrent views of Shiahs. They also acknowledge the zulm and barbarity committed against the Muslims of Palestine.

However, they say that Iran has, just in the last decade or so (directly or through proxies), murdered about 1.5 million Muslims and displaced more than 15 million in various lands such as Iraq, Syria, Lebanon, and Yemen. On the other hand, the Yahoodi state has in about 75 years murdered about 140,000 Muslims and displaced about 5 million. The atrocities against Palestine are well-known and highly publicized, but the atrocities of the Shiah (both those of the recent decades as well as throughout history) get much less attention from Muslims and are less well known/recognized among the masses.

Citing this track record of Shiahs having committed even greater (albeit less well known) atrocities against Muslims than the Yahood, some Ulama-e-Kiraam say that (regardless of Shiahs being perceived as a pillar of the Ummah), the reality is that Shiahs have been and are far more harmful than Yahood/Nasaara for the Muslims both in terms of murder/displacement as well as Aqaaid. Therefore, these Ulama-e-Kiraam do not have a preference for a Shiah victory. What is your opinion about this view?

Answer

The difference is a matter of opinion. Neither of the two views is substantiated by Wahi or Nass. Perhaps we are in error with our view, and perhaps the other Ulama-e-Kiraam are in error. Allah Ta'ala knows best. Nevertheless, we are concerned with the current scenario, not with the past.

What has happened in the past is history. We are concerned with what is currently unfolding and what the consequences will be of a US-Israeli victory. Israel has always stated its claim of greater Israel to include even Saudi Arabia. It is therefore of imperative importance for Islamic states (and there are none today) to militarily support Iran in the current war. The claptrap slogans and our debates and discussion are all futile, and far from the Remembrance of Allah Ta'ala. Our discussions and views of all variety will have no significance on the battlefields where the outcome of the war is being decided.

Anyhow to add to the futile debate, imagine the US and Israel are waging this war to colonize the entire Middle East and even Makkah and Madinah. Now if in such a scenario where there is not a single Muslim state confronting the enemy, if Iran steps forward and blocks the Yahood and Nasaara from achieving their pernicious goal, will it be proper to side with the latter, and decry the defence Iran has taken up to prevent the US and Israel from capturing Makkah and Madinah regardless of its (Iran's) motive for the defence?

In such a scenario it will be a symbiotic 'unity' with Iran compelled by the prevailing circumstances regard-

AL-AQSA IN KUFFAAR CONTROL

IOF seal off Al-Aqsa Mosque during Eid, attack worshippers outside

Hundreds of Palestinians held the Eid al-Fitr prayers in the streets of occupied al-Quds on Friday after Israeli occupation forces closed the Al-Aqsa Mosque.

Israeli forces reportedly attacked worshippers at the Bab al-Sahira area, firing tear gas toward them, while heavily deploying troops around the Bab al-Amoud area. The closures prevented Palestinians from praying inside or near the mosque, though Eid Takbirs were still raised from within Al-Aqsa.

Israeli forces also barred Palestinians from entering the Ibrahim Mosque in al-Khalil, in the southern West Bank, to perform the Eid prayer.

This year marks an unprecedented development since "Israel" occupied eastern Al-Quds in 1967, as Palestinians were completely barred from performing Eid prayers inside Al-Aqsa Mosque. While disruptions, restrictions, and confrontations have occurred during past Ramadans and Eids, worshippers have historically been able to pray inside the mosque or its courtyards despite checkpoints and security controls." (End of report)

"Allah is aware of what is in the land and ocean. Not a leaf drops (from a tree), but He is aware. There is neither a seed under the earth nor anything moist or dry, but it is recorded in a Clear Book"

(Qur'aan)

".....When the First Promise (of Punishment) arrived, We sent against you (Bani Israaeel) such of Our servants who were powerful in war. Thus, they penetrated the homes.

.....When the second Promise came, they disfigured your faces (with their brutality) and they entered the Masjid (Musjidul Aqsa) as they had entered it the first time, and they utterly devastated whatever they over ran."

(Bani Israaeel 5 – 7)

Just as Allah Azza Wa Jal had snatched away Musjidul Aqsa from the Muslim Ummah of bygone times and handed it to the fire-worshipping kuffaar of Iraq who had invaded Jerusalem under their king Bukht Nassar whom Allah Ta'ala describes 'Our servants', so too has Allah Azza Wa Jal today handed Musjidul Aqsa to the Yahood kuffaar.

This is the consequence of the spiritual devastation which the Palestinian Muslims have caused to themselves and the Masjid. Allah Ta'ala is not oblivious. He does not punish unjustly. Whatever is happening in Al-Aqsa, Palestine and elsewhere is by the Decree of Allah Ta'ala.

Muslims have become treacherous to the degree of kufr, hence they do not deserve being in control of Musjidul Aqsa. Handing the Masjid to the Yahood kuffaar is a form of punishment which Allah Ta'ala inflicts on less of history.

Ultimately, it is the Decree of Allah Ta'ala which will prevail. Whether we, ordinary people verbally and morally support or condemn Iran, it is all futile. It will make no difference on the battlefield because we are not participating in the battle in any way whatsoever. We only indulge in futile discussion, and the discussions generally are stupid and a waste of time and a diversion from Thikr-e-Ilaahi.

"All affairs finally return to Allah." (Qur'aan).

"With His Nusrat, Allah aids whomever He wills" (Qur'aan)

We reiterate, there is no certitude for the correctness of any view fabricated by our defective minds.

OUR PROTECTOR & HELPER IS ONLY ALLAH

“O People of Imaan! If you follow the kuffaar, they will turn you on your heels (into kufr), then you will be the losers. In fact, Allah is your Protector, and He is the best of helpers.”

(Aal-e-Imraan, Aayats 149, 150)

Massive upheavals, political and social, are rocking the world. The Ummah of Islam appears to be the prime target for the nations of the kuffaar. Muslims are fearfully and meekly searching for protection from the enemy – the very kuffaar who are poised to swallow the Ummah.

This attitude of Muslims is the effect of extreme defective Imaan or of a devastated Imaan. While professing to be Muslims, they really have no understanding of the meaning of being Muslim.

Allah Ta'ala has been excised from the lives of Muslims. Islam remains a skeleton of a handful of rituals. Whilst practicing these rituals haphazardly and lackadaisically, Muslims waste away their lives in gross disobedience, rebellion and treachery without having the haziest conception of the true objective of life on earth. Thus they seek protection, worldly progress and safety in emulating their enemies – the enemies of Allah Ta'ala and of the Deen.

It is this evil and disgraceful attitude against which Allah Ta'ala warns us in the aforementioned Qur'aanic Aayat. Allah Azza Wa Jal explains to us that emulation of the kuffaar will lead to irtid-aad (reneging from Islam). Far from gaining protection from the kuffaar, they will only devour and swallow the Ummah.

Warning us against such deviation, Allah Ta'ala states that “only He is our Protector”. But Muslims have chosen to remain deaf and blind to the Call of Allah Ta'ala.

Regardless of what worldly preparations Muslims make for their safety, never will they succeed if the Nusrat (Aid/Help) of Allah Ta'ala is not forthcoming. If Allah Ta'ala withholds His help, nothing and no power can protect us against our enemies. In this regard the Qur'aan states:

“If Allah aids you, no one can then defeat you. And, If He abandons you, then who is there to help you besides Him. On Allah should the Mu'minoon have trust.”
(Aal-e-Imraan, Aayat 160)

The Aid of Allah Ta'ala is available only on the platform of Itaa-at (Obedience) and Ibaadat (Worship). There is no other way for the acquisition of Divine Aid. The Nusrat of Allah Ta'ala was the secret for all the victories and successes of the Sahaabah. Muslims are not reliant for success and victory on the great technological accomplishments of the kuffaar. Muslims are reliant on the Help of Allah Ta'ala about which Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) said:

“Whatever is by Allah is obtainable only by means of Obedience.”

Obedience to Allah Ta'ala is in fact described in the Qur'aan Majeed as ‘helping’ Allah Ta'ala. The aid of Allah Ta'ala is reliant on this ‘helping’ Him:

“O People of Imaan! If you help Allah (His Deen), He will help you and plant your feet firmly (against your enemy).”

(Muhammad, Aayat 7)

The consequences of disobedience are severe and painful:

“If you are grateful, I shall most certainly increase this Ummah which is ‘Muslim’ in name. But in reality Muslims of today are no different from the kuffaar. Regarding the Muslims of this era, the Hadith mentions:

“There will dawn an age when the people will assemble in their Musaajid and perform Salaat while not a single one will be a Mu'min.”

Reviling the kuffaar and lamenting are futile.

THE SAUDI MURTAD KING HUMILIATED BY HIS BOSS, THE CLOWN TRUMP

'He thought I'd be just another American president that was a loser': Trump meeting Saudi king

TOI World Desk / TIMESOFINDIA.COM / Updated: Mar 28, 2026, 20:39 IST

US President Donald

Trump on Saturday shared details of an encounter with Saudi Arabia's leadership, using the moment to underline how he believes global perceptions of the United States have shifted under his presidency. Speaking at an investment forum, Trump described how the country had been viewed as a "dead country" before what he portrayed as the "hottest country in the world". Trump recounted a conversation with Saudi Arabia's king, describing their personal rapport in unusually warm terms. "What a man he is... When I was there, we bonded," he said, adding that the monarch would "grab my arm to get up" and that "I think he likes me. And he did like me, and he still likes me."

Trump then turned to what he said was a recent exchange, claiming the Saudi leader had praised the United States' turnaround under his leadership. "He looked at me and he said, you know, it's amazing. One year ago you were a dead country. Now you're the hottest country anywhere in the world," Trump said. In a remark that drew attention, Trump added: "He didn't think he'd be kissing my a. He really didn't. He thought he'd be just another American president that was a loser, where the country was going downhill. But now he has to be nice to me."

In 2020, during scrutiny over the killing of Saudi journalist Jamal Khashoggi, Trump reportedly told journalist Bob Woodward, "I saved his a," referring to Saudi Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman amid US political backlash."

MBS (Murtad Bin Shaitaan), the jaahil king of the Saudi regime as well as all the other US puppet vassal states (UAE) have appointed the USA as their leader and protector. They believed that honour, respect and protection were inextricably interwoven with licking the boots and hinds of USA. The Clown, Trump had recently become their primary and fundamental platform of honour and protection.

But Allah Ta'ala says in the Qur'aan Majeed:

"O People of Imaan! Do not take the Yahood and Nasaara as friends. They are mutual friends. Whoever from among you (Muslims) befriends them, verily he is of them. Verily Allah does not guide people who are zaalimeen (oppressors)." (Al-Maaidah, Aayat 51)
"You will see those in whose hearts is a disease (of kufr and nifaaq) racing among them, saying: 'We fear that some misfortune may befall us.'" (Al-Maaidah, Aayat 52)

While these miserable mur-taddeen / munaafiqeen seek honour and protection by creeping behind Trump and licking him in the way he, himself describes the Qur'aan informs Muslims:

"Whoever is desirous of honour (should know) that all Izzat (Honour) belongs to Allah."

(Faatir, Aayat 10)

Say (O Muhammad!): 'O Allah! Maalikal Mulk (i.e. King and Owner of the entire earth, sovereignty and power)! You bestow Mulk (country/sovereignty/ domination) to whomever You will, and You snatch away Mulk from whomever You will. You grant honour to whomever You will, and You disgrace whomever You will. In Your Hand is all goodness. Verily, You are All-Powerful over all things.”

(Aal-e-Imraan, Aayat 26)

Bereft of Imaan, these miserable plastic ‘kings’ and puppet rulers, because they have no faith in the Divine Proclamations of the Qur’aan Majeed, hanker after honour and safety which they believe these immoral, impure, najis kuffaar such as Trump the Clown wallowing in kufr and najaasat, will provide. But, the Iranian missile barrage has harshly awakened them from their drunken slumber. With regard to such moron boot-lickers who profess to be Muslims, the Qur’aan Majeed states:

“Inform the munaafiqeen that for them there is a painful punishment.

They (the munaafiqeen) are those who take the kaafireen as friends besides (instead of) the Mu’mineen. What! Do they search for izzat (honour) from them (the kuffaar)! (Let them know that), verily all Izzat belongs to only Allah.”

(An-Nisaa’, 138, 139)

Despite all the licking of Trump’s boots as well as his ‘hind’ as he himself publicly said to humiliate the Saudi king, and despite the trillions of dollars the MBS character has given to Trump, this Super Clown of the US deemed it appropriate to publicly humiliate the obsequious Murtad with the pejorative comment:

“He didn't think he'd be kissing my a..... He really didn't. He thought he'd be just another American president that was a loser, where the country was going downhill. But now he has to be nice to me.”

Emphasizing the humiliation, Trump objurgating stated:

“I saved his a.....,” referring to Saudi Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman amid US political backlash.”

This was a reference to the murder of Kashoggi in the Saudi embassy. The killing was ordered by the MBS murderer. While these cheap murtad Arab regime leaders seek honour and protection from Trump, they have now perhaps realized that their protector and god has no good intentions for them. The USA with its ‘most powerful military, navy and airforce’ has been unable to protect these murtad backyard states against the Iranian missile onslaught. At the same time, the Super Clown Trump is becoming incrementally frustrated over the destruction of American bases and assets in these puppet vassal states, hence he deemed it necessary to publicly insult the Saudi king so derogatively.

The insult excreted by Trump is in reality a miniscule punishment of Allah Ta’ala for those who seek honour and protection from the kuffaar.

“O People of Imaan! If you follow the kuffaar, they will turn you on your heels (to renege from Islam), then you will become the great losers.

In fact (only) Allah is your Protector, and

He is the best of helpers.”
(Aal-e-Imraan, 149, 150)

??????? “THE MOST POWERFUL MILITARY IN THE WORLD”

The Super Clown Trump said about the military forces of the USA: “The most powerful military in the world”. This claim was thoroughly debunked by the Taliban of Afghanistan.

This US ‘most powerful military’ aided by the armies of a coalition of about 40 countries, was bogged down for 21 years in Afghanistan by what they had pejoratively labelled ‘a rag tag’ group. This ‘rag tag’ group of Mujahideen had inflicted severe casualties on the combined forces of the western world. Furthermore, the American coalition of aggressors was actively aided by Pakistan without whose cooperation and aid, it was not possible to have inflicted so much devastation to Afghanistan by means of murderous aerial bombing for which the Taliban had no response.

Nevertheless, on the ground, the forces of the coa-

VICTORY AND DEFEAT?

CLOWN TRUMP'S DESIGNED ER- RATICISM

“How long can Trump keep lying to the markets?”

By Hala Farhat Source: Al

At 6:49 AM New York time on Monday, March 23rd, in a single sixty-second window, approximately 6,200 oil futures contracts, worth roughly $580 million, were traded. The trade followed no announcement, data release, or Fed speaker. Just a gigantic and perfectly timed bet that oil prices were about to fall.

Fifteen minutes later, at 7:04 AM, US President Donald Trump announced on Truth Social that the US and Iran had held "VERY GOOD AND PRODUCTIVE CONVERSA-TIONS" on ending the war. Oil fell 15% in an hour, $1.7 trillion was added to global equity markets in minutes, and the person or entity that made that trade in that sixty-second window before Trump's announcement made an enormous profit.

Iran denied that any conversations were held, and surely enough, within twenty-four hours, oil was rising again."

lition of kuffaar were perpetually on the defensive and were no match for the Taliban. Regarding the coalition of kuffaar forces, the Qur'aan Majeed states:

“They (their coalitions) cannot fight you except from fortified garrisons or from behind walls (their ‘greenzones’). Their mutual in-fighting is severe. You have the impression that they are united when (in reality) their hearts are asunder. That is because they are a people bereft of intelligence.”

(Al-Hashr, Aayat 14)

What was the fate of Trump's 'most powerful military' aided by the coalition of 40 countries? They fled – all of them. The USA had disgracefully fled like a dog with its tail between its legs. They fled with extreme haste, in confusion. The US abandoned $8 billion of military equipment - arms, ammunition, armoured vehicles and other equipment of every kind. All of that is now in possession of the Taliban while Trump has yelped like a mongrel and grimalkin for the return of the military hardware which the Taliban have refused.

(My Bounties) for you, and if you are ungrateful, then (know that) verily My punishment is indeed severe.”
(Ibraaheem, Aayat 7)

The consequences of Muslim disobedience are the upheavals and the genocide being perpetrated today in Palestine and the Middle East in general. These lands of Muslims have become the worst abodes of disobedience. The solution for the plight of the Ummah is only ONE, and that is Inaabat Ilallaah – to turn to Allah Ta'ala with Taubah, Itaa-at and Ibaadat. Then Allah Ta'ala will send His invisible armies to help Muslims.

Allah Ta'ala pivots His bounties on our 'gratitude'.

Gratitude does not mean verbal expression of 'shukr' (thanks). It means total and full submission to the Shariah of Allah Ta'ala - submission in every sphere and aspect of life.

“... ..Then Allah sent down His tranquility in His Ra-sool and on the Mu'mineen and He sent such armies which you could not see, and He punished the kuffaar.”
(At-Taubah, Aayat 26)

POWER IS FROM ALLAH

“Thus did We grant power to those who were oppressed weaklings (making them the inheritors of) the eastern and western regions of the earth which We had blessed.....”

(Al-A'raaf, Aayat 137)

Bani Israaeel, the Muslim Ummah of bygone times, was a nation of slaves oppressed and persecuted by Fir'oun. As a punishment for their rebellion and treachery Allah Ta'ala had imposed the domination of Fir'oun on them. When the divinely prescribed punishment had run its course, Allah Ta'ala granted power to this oppressed, weak nation of slaves who became the rulers of the eastern and western regions of the Middle East.

Only Allah Azza Wajal is in control and power. It is He who directs every operation in the universe. When Bani Israaeel complained about the brutality and oppression of Fir'oun, he advised:

“Verily, the earth belongs to Allah. He grants it (political power and control) to whomever of His servants He wills. The ultimate result of victory

(and success) is for the Muttaqeen.”

(Al-A'raaf, Aayat 128)

For the acquisition of victory over the kuffaar, Nabi Musaa (Alayhis salaam) said to his people: “Seek help from Allah and have Sabr (patience).”

This is the only solution for gaining the Help of Allah Ta'ala. Sabr brings in its purview Ibaadat and Taa-at (Obedience). All other ways acquired by the kuffaar are inspirations and teachings of Iblees.

“EXPEL THEM FROM ARABIA”

During his Maradhul Maut (Last Illness), Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) commanded the Sahaabah: “Expel the Yahud and the Nasaara from the Arabian Peninsula.” The Command was finally fulfilled during the Khilaafate of Hadrath Umar Ibn Khattaab (Radhiyallahu anhu).

This order was not restricted to the Haramain Shareefain. It applied to the entire Peninsula of Arabia. Not a single kaafir was to be tolerated in Arabia. It was with the establishment of the British protectorate of Saudi Arabia that this Command of Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) was set aside and the door opened for the entry of the Yahud and Nasaara.

Today this evil has reached the gutter level of kuffaar being allowed right into the Haramain Shareefain. By degrees, idolatry is being reintroduced in Arabia. This is one of the signs of Qiyaamah.

THE AID OF ALLAH

“O People of Imaan! Remember the favour of Allah when the armies (of the kuffaar) approached you.

Then We sent upon them a wind (to uproot them), and We dispatched such armies (of Angels) which you could not see. Allah sees whatever you are doing.”

(Al-Ahzaab, Aayat 9)

Although this Aayat pertains to the occasion of the Battle of Ahzaab also known as the Battle of the Trench, it is of universal significance. It applies for all times and for those who are true Mu'mineen.

All forces in creation are the armies of Allah Ta'ala. Allah Azza Wa Jal says:

“The armies of the heavens and earth belong to Allah.”

(Al-Fath, Aayat 4)

“The armies of the heavens and earth belong to Allah.”

(Al-Fath, Aayat 7)

“No one knows the Armies of your Rabb, except He.”

(Al-Muddassir, Aayat 31)

Alas! Today Allah Ta'ala has withheld His Armies from aiding Muslims who are no longer the 'Mu'mineen' who qualify for His Nusrat. That is why the kuffaar are able to humiliate, pummel and destroy entire nations of Muslims and their lands. It is all executed with the permission of Allah Azza Wa Jal. The genocide in Palestine is the Decree of Allah Azza Wa Jal.

THE KILLER AND THE KILLED

Question: In a 'road rage' altercation involving two Muslims, one Muslim was shot dead by the other Muslim and also the murdered man's wife was critically wounded by the shooter. Is the killed person a shaheed?

Answer: No, he is not a shaheed. When a Muslim kills a Muslim, both in fact will be assigned to Jahannam. Rasulallah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) said:

"When two Muslims confront (each other) with their swords, the qaatil (killer) and the maqtool (the killed one) are in the Fire (of Jahannam)."

Someone asked: 'O

Rasulallah! The killer (entering the Fire) is understood. But why the killed one (will also be in the Fire?)." Rasulallah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) said: "He also desired to kill his adversary."

Thus both the killer and the killed one are destined for Jahannam. 'Road rage' is pure shaitaanियat and it is the effect of takabbur (pride). It is utterly disgraceful and lamentable that Muslims can resort to killing each other, and over what? This shaitaan-i-rage is not a valid excuse for expressing anger.

The one who has erred should swiftly apologize and promise to make amends if his action had caused any damage to the other person's vehicle. If a driver commits a shaitaani act pertaining to driving and ignoring the traffic rules, the other person should suppress his anger, overlook the stupidity of the driver.

If a driver swears or passes crude remarks, suppress the nafs, engage in Thikrullah and ignore the jahaalat of the other person. The Qur'aan Majeed says:

"When they (the Muttaqeen) hear laghw (nonsense/stupidity/shaitaanियat), they ignore it, and they say: 'For us are our deeds and for you are your deeds. Salaam on you.'"

PLOTS & SCHEMES

"Verily, those before them had plotted. All plots belong to Allah.

He is aware whatever everyone earns (schemes)."

(Ar-Ra'd, Aayat 42)

"Verily, they plotted their schemes while their plots are by Allah. Indeed their plot is (of such evil magnitude) that even mountains will move."

(Al-Hijr 46)

All the plots and conspiracies of the kuffaar are within the knowledge and control of Allah Azza Wa Jal. Their pernicious plots have a divinely prescribed trajectory. The harm and damage caused by their evil schemes are to the measure ordained by Allah Ta'ala.

Muslims should not divert their focus from Allah Ta'ala. Trump, Israel and the entire world of the kuffaar are all under the power and control of Allah Azza Wa Jal. No amount of vilification and blaming the kuffaar will alter the course decreed by Allah Azza Wa Jal.

All forces in the universe are cogs in the Armies of Allah Azza Wa Jal.

"The armies of the heavens and earth belong to Allah."

(Al-Fath, Aayat 4)

"The armies of the heavens and earth belong to Allah."

(Al-Fath, Aayat 7)

"No one knows the Armies of your Rabb, except He."

(Al-Muddassir, Aayat 31)

CALAMITY (THE CONSEQUENCE OF SINS)

"Whatever calamity befalls you, is the consequence of your hands."

(Qur'aan)

The brother of Hadhrat Muhammad Bin Yoosuf (Rahmatullah alayh) wrote to him complaining about the oppression of the rulers. Muhammad Bin Yoosuf replied:

"O my Brother! It should not be hidden from you that the one who sins has no right to complain when the punishment befalls him. The calamity which has befallen you is certainly the consequence of sin."

THE NOBLEST JIHAD

Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) said: "The noblest Jihad is to proclaim the truth to a tyrannical ruler." The tyranny and cruelty of Hajjaaj Bin Yusuf are proverbial. He had put to death thousands of innocent Muslims, including many Sahaabah. He would have them summarily executed in his presence on the slightest pretext to gratiate his passion for killing.

Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan Bin Abi Na-eem (rahmatullah alayh) was among the very senior Taabi-een. His taqwa and ibaadat were of such a lofty status and so all-embracing that if he had to be informed that Malakul Maut (the Angel of Death) has arrived to take his soul, then too he would not have been able to improve his ibaadat. The news of Malakul Maut's arrival would not effect the slightest change in his attitude. His entire being was perpetually consumed with the remembrance of Allah Ta'ala.

Once Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan went to Hajjaaj and admonished him of the dire consequences of his cruelty and injustice. Hajjaaj was inflamed. He ordered that Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan be enclosed in a windowless dungeon. The door was sealed. He was literally entombed in the intensely dark dungeon in which there was not even a crevice for any light or air to filter through. He remained in the dungeon for fifteen days without any food or water or any other facilities whatsoever. After fifteen days, Hajjaaj ordered that his body be buried.

When the guards opened the door of the dungeon they found Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan engaged in Salaat. He was in the same condition as he was on the first day of his imprisonment. When Hajjaaj was informed, he ordered Hadhrat Abdur Rahmaan to be released. He realized that this was an act of Allah Ta'ala. No one can harm a person when Allah Ta'ala protects him.

COMMANDING THE NILE

Once during the khilaafat of Hadhrat Umar (radhiyallahu anhu) the River Nile dried up. The sustenance of the populace was tied to the River Nile on which they and their livestock depended for the growth of their crops, drinking water and very survival. The people complained to Hadhrat Amr Ibnul A's (radhiyallahu anhu), the Governor. He asked if the river had dried up before as well. When they affirmed that it had dried up in the past as well, Hadhrat Amr (radhiyallahu anhu) asked: "What would you do then?" They said that it was their practice to sacrifice a young beautiful girl to the river. The girl would be killed as an offering to propitiate the river.

Hadhrat Amr (radhiyallahu anhu) said that such a custom of jaahiliyyah would never be allowed in Islam. He then wrote to Hadhrat Umar (radhiyallahu anhu) regarding the issue and sought his advice and direction. In response Hadhrat Umar (radhiyallahu anhu) directed a written command to the River Nile. In his letter he addressed the river, commanding it to flow by the permission of Allah Ta'ala.

Many people in Egypt mocked at this act which they labelled absurd, ludicrous and ascribed it to their imagined puerility and senility of H a d h r a t U m a r (radhiyallahu anhu). When the letter reached Hadhrat Amr (radhiyallahu anhu), he hastened to the River without the slightest doubt or trepidation. A large group of the mockers and critics also accompanied him to witness what they believed would be the humiliation of Ameerul Mu'mineen Hadhrat Umar (radhiyallahu anhu).

Hadhrat Amr (radhiyallahu anhu) had made a public announcement regarding the written command. Therefore a huge crowd accompanied him to witness the miracle. When Hadhrat Amr (radhiyallahu anhu) deposited the Command on to the river bed, the river simultaneously began to rise and flow strongly. That was the taqwa and yaqeen of the Sahaabah who had raised the Standard of Islam over the hilltops of the world. They were a different and a wonderful breed of hermits, recluses and monks.

FASAAD – ANARCHY

"Fasaad (anarchy, strife, corruption) has appeared on earth and the ocean as a consequence of what the hands of people have perpetrated, so that He (Allah Ta'ala) gives them to taste some of the (evil deeds) which they have committed, for perhaps they may return (to Siraatul Mustaqeem)." (Ar-Room, Aayat 41)

THE KUFR OF VOTING

“Are they searching for the law of jaahiliyyah (the law of shaitaan)? Who is a more beautiful Judge than Allah for people who have Yaqeen (firm conviction).”
(Al-Maaidah, Aayat 50)

“Have you not seen those who think that they have Imaan (belief) in that which has been revealed to you and that which was revealed before you? They desire adjudication from Taaghoot (Shaitaan) whilst having been commanded to reject him.”
(An-Nisaa’, Aayat 60)

“O People of Imaan! If you follow the kuffaar, they will turn you on your heels (to renege from Islam), then you will become the great losers. In fact (only) Allah is your Protector, and He is the best of helpers.”
(Aal-e-Imraan, 149, 150)

In flagrant violation and rejection of the Qur’aan Majeed and all the Nusoos of the Hadith, evil scoundrel molvi agents of Iblees, peddling sinister agendas, are promoting participation in kuffaar politics. They are encouraging and misleading Muslims into the trap of voting.

There is absolutely no conundrum for confusing Muslims regarding the hurmat and impermissibility of becoming soiled in the shaitaani process of the kuffaar voting system. It is a system of Taaghoot, haraam from beginning to end.

Every step leading to voting and every step in its participation are Taaghooti and haraam.

Muslims have lost the Path of the Deen. They have diverted far, very far from Siiraatul Mustaqeem. They have lost their Imaani bearings. The scoundrel molvis who are bartering the Knowledge of the Deen for the carrion crumbs of the dunya are further misleading the moron masses into the wolf’s den. The Qur’aan states with emphasis: “Allah is sufficient for the Mu’mineen.”

While the munaafiq molvis are promoting the law of Taaghoot, Allah Ta’ala says in the Qur’aan Majeed: “Are they searching for the law of jaahiliyyah (the law of shaitaan)? Who is a more beautiful Judge than Allah for people who have Yaqeen (firm conviction).”(Al-Maaidah, Aayat 50)

All law processes of the kuffaar are the law of Taaghoot which Muslims are commanded to reject. In this regard, the Qur’aan states: “Whoever rejects Taaghoot (Shaitaan) and believes (have Imaan) in Allah, verily he has taken hold of a such a powerful handle which does not break.” (Al-Baqarah, Aayat 256)

That Handle is the Shariah as opposed to the law of Taaghoot which these scoundrel munaafiq molvis are promoting and in which they are entrapping stupid Muslims. Castigating these scoundrels who promote the law of Taaghoot, the Qur’aan Majeed states: “Allah is the Protector (Friend) of the Mu’mineen whom He takes out from the darkness (of kufr) into the Noor (Celestial Light of Imaan). As for the kuffaar, their friends are the devils (shayaateen) who extract them from Noor (and take them) into the darkness (of kufr). Indeed, they are the companions of the Fire wherein they will dwell forever.”

(Al-Baqarah, Aayat 257)

Those who mislead Muslims into the snare of kufr by promoting participation in the voting process of Taaghoot are the Fuel of Jahannam. There is no scope in Islam for the law system of the kuffaar. Every system in conflict with the Shariah is the law of Jaahiliyyah whose author is Taaghoot (Iblees).

For their safety, Muslims should turn unto Allah Ta’ala with repentance and self-reformation – reformation in terms of the Qur’aan and Sunnah. Allah Ta’ala will then protect us against the vile predations, pillaging and plundering of kuffaar mobs and sinister plotters.

“If you help (the Deen of) Allah, He will help you and plant your feet firmly (against your enemy).

If Allah helps you, no one can defeat you. But if He abandons you, then who is there besides Allah to help you?”

THE STUPID ANOMALY OF “NAFQAH RECOGNIZED IN SA LAW”

Making fools of themselves, some juhala publishing their report on a ruling of the Cape Taaghoot court, said:

“Setting a groundbreaking precedent for South African family law and Muslims around the country, the Western Cape High Court has ruled that the Islamic legal obligation of nafaqah can serve as the foundation for a civil claim for financial reimbursement between divorced Muslim spouses.”

This devil’s ruling has no validity in the Shariah. There is nothing ‘groundbreaking’ for Muslims in this piece of kufr law disgorged by the court of Taaghoot. Civil law is kufr/taaghooti law. There is no confluence between the law of Taaghoot and the Shariah. These two systems of law are widely divergent and mutually repellent. It is indeed a demonstration of the malfunctioning of brains to shove any Shariah law aspect into subservience of kufr law. Their can never be a blending of the two opposing concepts.

Shariah Law is divine while kufr law is satanic. How is it ever possible to create a fusion between that which is divine and that which is satanic?

Compounding stupidity ludicrously, they say: “That is a first-of-its-kind ruling that provides a practical legal mechanism to protect Muslim women.” Indeed it is an attempt to befuddle moron Muslims and to placate the munaafiqaat (female hypocrites) who happen to be members of kuffaar law societies, who monotonously pipe the theme of ‘Islam’s injustice to women’. They will still experience their compensation in the Blazing Fire of Jahannam for their stark kufr presented in ‘deeni’ guise.

There is absolutely no protection for Muslim women in the Taaghooti ruling of the court of Taaghoot. If there is any carrion benefit for any women, it will be for murtad females masquerading as Muslims. Mu’minaat will NEVER run to the kuffaar court to acquire a ruling which will expel them from the fold of Islam.

True Muslim women follow the Shariah. They know and accept that Allah Ta’ala has decreed that a divorced woman is entitled to nafaqah (maintenance) for the period known as the Iddat. After expiry of the Iddat, her ex-husband has absolutely no obligation of nafaqah. She is then a strange woman up for marriage to other men.

The hybrid attempt by the court of Taaghoot is a mere red herring to fool morons with the Islamic term, nafaqah. Whatever the court had ruled was not nafaqah. It was zulm (injustice, oppression and usurpation) in terms of the Shariah.

It is of imperative importance for Muslim women to understand that by seeking the aid of the kuffaar court to extract and usurp money from their ex-husbands in conflict with the Shariah is KUFRA which expels them from the fold of Islam. Their everlasting abode will be Jahannam.

LEADERSHIP?

Hadhrat Umar Bin Abdul Aziz (Rahmatullah alayh), the Bani Ummayyah Khalifah is famously known as Umar The Second for having restored the government of the Islamic Empire to the style of the Khilaafat of Hadhrat Umar Bin Khattaab (Radhiyallahu anhu).

Hadhrat Maimoon Bin Maharaan (Rahmatullah alayh) who was among the illustrious Auliya and Fuqaha of the Tab-e-Taabieen era commented: “Although Umar Bin Abdul Aziz is more beloved to me than anyone else, I love more to see him as a corpse than seeing him as the ruler.”

This was the kind of detestation for leadership which Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) had instilled in the Men of Taqwa. Whoever hankers after leadership is doomed in this dunya and the Aakhirah. The Men of Ilm and Taqwa flee from leadership.

BEWARE OF KUFR AFFINITY

Istihsaanul kufr* means to prefer kufr or to think good of any act of kufr or to give preference to an act of kufr over and above an act of Islam. Such a preference expels one from the fold of Islam.

A great Aalim of Makkah, Shaikh Dahhaan (rahmatullah alayh) narrated an amazing story full of lesson and admonition. It is an eye-opener for Muslims of this age who view with disdain many practices of the Shariah. They accord preference to the institutions, practices, styles and customs of the kuffaar, and thus eliminate their Imaan. Shaikh Dahhaan (rahmatullah alayh) narrated that once (in very recent history) a prominent Aalim of lofty status of ostensible piety who had died was buried in the Qabrustaan of Makkah (or in Jannatul Baqi of Madinah).

The norm in Arabia is to re-open graves and bury others in the same qabr. Within a short while the bodies disintegrate. Since nothing remains, the graves are used repeatedly. When the grave of this famous Aalim was opened, to the amazement of the people the body had not disintegrated. When the kafan was opened, the amazement of the people knew no bounds, for the mayyit was that of a beautiful European girl.

Fortunately on the scene there was a man who said that he recognized the girl. She was a French girl who had secretly embraced Islam. She used to practise Islam in secret, and he used to teach her. This cleared up the mystery as far as the girl's body was concerned. Since she was a sincere Muslim, Allah Ta'ala transferred her body from the graveyard of kufr to the Qabrustaan of Imaan, namely, Jannatul Baqi.

However, there remained the mystery of the Aalim's body. It was logical to presume that the Aalim's body was miraculously transferred into the girl's grave in France. The person at whose hands the girl had embraced Islam was despatched to France to ascertain the reality. He went and narrated the episode of the girl to her parents, and finally managed to convince them to have the grave of their daughter opened up to ascertain the reality. This was done. When the coffin was opened everyone was aghast and shocked beyond belief when they saw that it was not the expected corpse of the girl.

After this information was transmitted to Makkah, the wife of the Aalim was interviewed. The Ulama asked her to describe her husband. She explained that her husband was a man of lofty piety. The Ulama told her to reflect deeply as they believed that there must have been some tendency or element of kufr in him which warranted this calamity to befall him. After deep thought the wife said that whenever he required a Waajib ghusl, he would remark: "The Christians have it nice. They are not encumbered with a Fardh ghusl." This cleared up the mystery regarding the misfortune and calamity which befell the Aalim.

In view of his preference for a practice of the Christians, the effect of which was disdain for a Shar'i practice, Allah Ta'ala expelled his body from the Holy Land and cast him into the land of kufr for whose practice he had shown a preference.

Muslims should reflect and fear such calamities which may befall them for their evil preferences. May Allah Ta'ala save our Imaan.

BOOTLICKING ULAMA

Hadhrat Sufyaan Thauri (Rahmatullah alayh) commenting on the corruption of the Ulama, said: "We have seen such pious Ulama who preferred seclusion in their homes. However, nowadays the Ulama have become bootlickers of the rulers."

Hadhrat Sufyaan had made this observation about 12 centuries ago. What is the position of the Ulama during this 15th century of Islam?

Their bootlicking of rulers, even kuffaar rulers and of kuffaar religions, have transformed them into reverends, priests, swamis and pundits. They have betrayed Islam for the miserable worldly carrion crumbs.

THE ERRORS OF THE PIOUS

The acts and errors of the Saaliheen (Auliya) do not constitute Shar'i Daleel. The Proofs of the Shariah are the Qur'aan and the Sunnah on the basis of which the Aim-mah-e-Mujtahideen had formulated the Structure of the Shariah.

The Saaliheen (pious saints) also sometimes commit errors. However, their errors should not be cited as justification for corrupt views and for audacity to commit sins. Such an attitude is kufr, hence, Allaamah Abdul Wahhaab Sha'raani (rahmatullah alayh) said: "Whoever takes to the obscurities (and errors) of the Ulama has made his exit from islam."

Hadhrat Maulana Ya'qoob (rahmatullah alayh) was an Ustaadh of Hadhrat Maulana Ashraf Ali Thanvi (rahmatullah alayh). He was among the first wrung of Asaatizah of Darul Uloom Deoband. He was an expert of many subjects. Once he desired to become an expert in music. Despite his acknowledged lofty spiritual state, he soon acquired expertise in the science of music. Music here refers to the art or theoretical rules and regulations of the science of music. It does not refer to music accompanied by musical instruments.

Once while he was engaged with music, a Majzoob who passed by exclaimed: "Molvi Sahib, this is not for you. You are meant for something else." This naseehat had a profound effect on Hadhrat Maulana Ya'qoob (rahmatullah alayh). He immediately abandoned music and repented. Even the person from whom he had learnt music, repented. Commenting on this episode, Hadhrat Thanvi (rahmatullah alayh) said: "Even the Saaliheen commit errors. However, when they are warned, they immediately abandon the error and repent." They never justify their errors.

Those who cling to the errors of the Saaliheen to justify their nafsaaniyat come within the purview of the Qur'aanic Aayat:

"They take their scholars and their saints as gods besides Allah....."

This was the attitude of the deviates of Bani Israaeel. Today such deviation is diligently plodded by the mercenary molvis who are peddling their knowledge and bartering away their Imaan for the carrion crumbs of the dunya.

YOUR DEEDS & MISDEEDS

Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) said: "Your deeds are your rulers."

Allah Ta'ala appoints rulers in accordance with the deeds and misdeeds of the nation. Corrupt and tyrannical rulers are appointed over a corrupt nation. Conversely, Allah Ta'ala appoints benevolent rulers when the people are morally healthy.

Therefore, Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) forbade wasting time vilifying the rulers. It is Allah Ta'ala Who appoints rulers. Nothing happens without the decree of Allah Azza Wa Jal. We are required to morally reform ourselves and submit to the Sunnah, then only will Allah Ta'ala change the rulers or replace them.

Shaitaan diverts the focus of Muslims from Allah Ta'ala. He succeeds in his scheme of convincing Muslims that their plight of defeat and humiliation is the kuffaar whereas in reality kuffaar domination and oppression are the Athaab of Allah Azza Wa Jal for Muslim treason.

mercenary for Trump. Recently, ignoring the civil government of Pakistan, Trump had invited the Commander in Chief of Pakistan's army to the Whitehouse where he was given royal treatment. Thus the Pakistani war against Afghanistan is at the behest of Trump, and so are the bombings in Musjids and marketplaces.

INDIA: 7TH CENTURY MUSJID CONVERTED INTO A TEMPLE OF IDOLATRY

“Court declares another medieval mosque a temple

In repeat of a familiar pattern, the Madhya Pradesh High Court rules that the historic Kamal Maula mosque is a temple dedicated to a Hindu goddess.

By Yashraj Sharma and Mohammad Sartaj Alam Published On 18 May 2026

For decades, the Kamal Maula mosque in Dhar, in central India’s Madhya Pradesh state, has been like a second home for 78-year-old Mohammad Rafiq. Rafiq has been the muezzin, who calls Muslims to prayer, at the mosque for 50 years. Before him, his grandfather Hafiz Naziruddin used to lead the prayers even before India gained independence from British colonial rule in 1947.

But the mosque in the Bhojshala complex, a protected monument of archaeological importance, is out of bounds now for Rafiq and other Muslims in Dhar.

The Madhya Pradesh High Court, hearing a petition claiming a temple predated the mosque at the site, ruled on Friday that the medieval complex is a temple dedicated to a Hindu goddess.

On Sunday, the 13th-14th century monument was awash in saffron flags — associated with “Hindutva”, the far-right Hindu supremacist movement — as young men danced to religious tunes, filming the rituals on their phones. Local activists installed a temporary idol of the goddess as Hindu worshippers gathered in large numbers amid heavy police deployment.

The Kamal Maula mosque in the nondescript town of Dhar is not alone. Far-right Hindutva activists have made similar claims — that a given mosque was built atop a temple — across India, emboldened by Prime Minister Narendra Modi’s rise to power in 2014.

Even the Taj Mahal, one of the world’s seven wonders, could not escape the Hindutva crusade to find temple origins beneath Islamic-era monuments. Though the Taj Mahal is a mausoleum rather than a mosque, its 17th-century Mughal roots have also made it a subject of dispute.

For millions of Muslims like Rafiq in India, this erasure of memory cuts deep. “Until last Friday, our mosque was ours; today it is not,” he said in a feeble voice. “I had never imagined in my dreams that something like this would happen.”

‘Entrenched Islamophobia’

The site of the Kamal Maula mosque, or the so-called Bhojshala complex, has been disputed for decades, with the earliest Hindu nationalist claims made on the site in the late 1950s.

Under a 2003 agreement with the Archaeological Survey of India (ASI) — a government-run agency responsible for the protection of historical monuments — Hindus were allowed to visit the site every Tuesday, while Muslims were allowed to offer prayers on Fridays.

Now, the court’s ruling has declared the site a temple of Vagdevi, or the Goddess of Speech, allowing Hindus to worship at the site, and dismissing the Muslim community’s claim.

“□ The current trend of targeting mosques in India is part of the entrenched Islamophobia of Hindu nationalism,” she told Al Jazeera.

“It is one of many ways for Hindu nationalists to harass, threaten, and harm Muslim communities.

□ India’s ongoing campaigns to restrict freedom of religion for Muslims are appalling,” Truschke added.

The idol in question here is referred to as “Ambika”, another name for the goddess, carved in coarse white marble.

“The high court’s decision is absurd because the ASI has become the handmaiden of the Hindutva forces,” said Asaduddin Owaisi, a five-time member of parliament from the southern Indian city of Hyderabad.

“If the government of the day wants to convert all mosques [into temples], then it sends a message that there is a grave threat to the places of worship of the biggest minorities in India: Muslims,” Owaisi told Al Jazeera.

He further noted that the Madhya Pradesh High Court’s ruling “reeks with the stench” of the Supreme Court’s 2019 ruling on the demolition of the 16th-century Babri Mosque in Ayodhya town of the northern state of Uttar Pradesh.

“The Babri judgement opened the floodgates for all these claims and rulings to come up,” he said. “Where does this end? Certainly not on Dhar’s Kamal Maula mosque.”

HIS PUNISHMENT

"Your Rabb does not destroy (with punishment)

towns unjustly whilst its inhabitants engage in reformation."

(Hood, Aayat 117)

"Many were the towns which We had destroyed – the towns which prided them- *selves with their affluence.....

We do not destroy towns ex-* cept when their inhabitants are oppressive."

(Al-Qasas, 58, 59)

Towns, cities, and people are destroyed by Allah Azza Wa Jal when the inhabitants exceed all bounds of oppression, immorality and villainy.

Then the Athaab (Punishment) becomes justified.

Punishment by destruction is meted out in a variety of ways. Natural disasters, pestilence, drought, famine, in-fighting and warmongers are some forms of the Athaab of Allah Ta'ala. Currently, the Athaab of Allah Azza Wa Jal is apprehending the Muslims of Palestine and Lebanon. This punishment is in the form of Yahoood and Nasaara oppression and genocide.

Punishment for the mur-taddeen of the Gulf states and Saudi Arabia has commenced in the form of Iran's missiles.

Muslims should understand well that all occurrences, whether mighty political upheavals or the germination of seeds underground, are by the decree of Allah Ta'ala. Nothing whatsoever occurs without the decree of Allah Azza Wa Jal. Therefore, never delete Allah Ta'ala from your thinking and scheming.

"By Allah are the Keys of the Ghaib. He is aware of whatever is in the earth and oceans. Not a leaf drops (from a tree) nor is their a seed in the darkness of the earth, nor anything moist or dry, but it is recorded in a Clear Kitaab."

(Qur'aan)

THE MUSJID'S FATE — MUSLIMS ARE THE CAUSE

The Kamal Maula Musjid having been converted into a Hindu temple of idolatry is an incremental development affecting all Musaaqid in the land of the cow and idol worshippers. The stated policy of the evil cow-worshippers and dung consumers is to convert all Muslims to Hinduism and to all Musaaqid into temples of idolatry.

Muslims should engage in soul searching to understand why is this happening? When the Huqooq (Rights) of a Musjid are not fulfilled by the Muslims living around it, then the Musjid invokes the la'nat (curse) of Allah Azza Wa Jal on the community.

Muslims in India as well as in all countries have largely abandoned the very central Pillar upholding the Edifice of Islam, namely Salaat. Salaat is the very first obligation of the Islamic State. In this regard, the Qur'aan Majeed states:

"When We install them on earth (as rulers), they estab- lish Salaat and Zakaat, and they command virtue and prohibit evil."

The Musaaqid have become desolate. The purpose for which a Musjid is built is no longer being fulfilled. And that is because Muslims have abandoned the Deen.

Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) lamenting about the deplorable, pitiable and forlorn state of the Musaaqid in the era of Aakhiruz Zamaan, commented:

"The Musaaqid will be aamirah (ornamental struc- tures/ monuments/ external opulence and affluence) but bereft of guidance....."

This is extremely conspicuous in all countries. The Musaaqid are not being utilized strictly for the objective of their establishment. Worldly conversation, political activity, tourist visits under guise of 'dawah', sports, female gate-crashing, inviting kuffaar politicians, interfaith activity, etc., etc., are some of the acts of Satanism with which the Musaaqid are being polluted. Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) explaining some of the Signs of the Approaching Hour of Qiyaamah, said: "Voices will be raised in the Musaaqid."

Since the primary objective of the Musaaqid is no longer being pursued and since these Houses of Allah are being to defeat even the 'rag tag' group Hamas. Hamas has not been disarmed.

Furthermore, this cardboard/paper 'superpower' has been humiliated on the battlefield by Iran. Despite having no real airforce, and despite the destruction and devastation caused to civilians and the land's infrastructure, Iran remains defiant and capable of fighting and even defeating the cardboard 'superpower'. Iran has firmly rebuffed all American overtures for peace.

The USA according to a congressional report has suffered the loss and destruction of 42 aircraft. The Palestine Chronicle reports:

"A newly released congressional assessment has revealed the scale of reported US aircraft losses during the war against Iran, outlining damage or destruction involving dozens of aircraft and raising fresh questions about operational vulnerabilities, replacement costs and military readiness.

The report, prepared for Congress using information from the Pentagon, US Central Command and defense reporting, identified at least 42 aircraft losses or incidents linked to the conflict launched by the United States and Israel against Iran on February 28.

The report noted that Acting Pentagon Comptroller Jules Hurst previously told lawmakers operational costs linked to the war had already reached $29 billion. Lawmakers suggested actual aircraft replacement costs could climb much higher. Current estimates cited in the assessment place aircraft losses at approximately $2.6 billion, though analysts said eventual costs could exceed $7 billion. The report warned that replacing some systems could prove especially difficult because production lines for older aircraft are no longer active. It specifically highlighted the E-3 Sentry aircraft, suggesting losses could force Washington to reconsider costly replacement programs. Beyond financial costs, the congressional assessment raised broader concerns over military strategy and force posture. The report stated lawmakers may examine whether aircraft losses create operational gaps or expose weaknesses in highly contested environments.

It also suggested Congress could review whether the incidents reflected shifts in adversary capabilities or signaled a need to reconsider US operational concepts and deployment strategies. The document further questioned whether current industrial capacity and supply chains could rapidly replace aircraft losses while maintaining broader global commitments. The assessment comes as debates continue in Washington over the long-term consequences of the war and amid growing scrutiny regarding the overall cost of US military operations against Iran."

contaminated and polluted with many haraam acts, Allah Ta'ala is punishing Muslims by handing over the Musaaqid to kuffaar. Then He enables them to desecrate the Musaaqid. This is one form of worldly punishment for Muslims.

This is the fate of Musjidul Aqsa, the Babari Musjid of India, the Kamal Maula Musjid and innumerable other small Musjids all over India.

In India millions of Muslims have Hinduized themselves. They lick the boots of the Hindus, and the worst villains are the swami-type of molvis, especially the MUCK which call themselves Jamiatul Ulama Hind. They are in fact pundits and swamis who have declared war on Jibraeel (Alayhis salaam).

When such is the deplorable state of fisq, fujoor and kufr of the vast majority of Muslims in India, the conversion of the Musaaqid into temples of idolatry is of no surprise. Allah Ta'ala is punishing Muslims by handing our Musaaqid to His Hindu enemies. In fact, in the Qur'aan Majeed, Allah Ta'ala refers to the kuffaar whom He harnesses to punish Muslims as 'Ibaadal lana' (Our servants).

Allah's Obligation

"Aiding the Mu'mineen has always been Our Obligation."

(Ar-Room, Aayat 47)

This cardboard 'superpower' has miserably failed to defeat Iran which comparatively speaking was supposed to be no match for the USA. But on the battlefield the weakness of the 'superpower' has been exposed. What would have been the miserable and pitiable condition of this cardboard 'superpower' if several Muslim countries should make a combined onslaught on it? The USA has miserably failed to even protect its own bases in its puppet backyard gulf states.

The soldiers in these bases were compelled to flee and hide in hotels. But the 'superpower' was rendered impotent hence failed to defend its own bases and soldiers.

Despite the massive naval armada the USA had dispatched to invade and devastate Iran, hitherto it has miserably failed to venture in close proximity of the Hormuz Straits which remains effectively in Iranian control. The supposedly invincible two aircraft carriers are idle far, very far from the coast of Iran fearing being struck by Iranian missiles. Thus, Trump has opted for the naval armada to remain idle out of the range of the Iranian missiles. In fact, some naval ships were struck by missiles. The largest aircraft carrier billowing smoke after having been struck retreated to Cyprus for repairs. Thus the cardboard/paper status of this phantom 'superpower' should be quite manifest. This 'superpower' excels in only the abominable, brutal feat of genocide from the air, and this has hitherto been possible for the lack of appropriate air-defences by the adversary.

THE HATRED OF THE INTERFAITH MUNAAFIQEN

"O People of Imaan! Do not take as confidants those besides your own people (i.e. Mu'mineen). They (the kuffaar) will leave no stone unturned to ruin you. They wish for such (calamities) which cause suffering to you. Verily, hatred for you has emerged from their mouths, but what their hearts conceal (for you) is worse.

Verily, We have clearly explained the Signs to you, if indeed you understand."
(Aal-e-Imraan, Aayat 118)

Equality is a stupid concept of western kuffaar. Although they monotonously and stupidly pipe the theme of equality of the sexes, they themselves miserably fail to achieve what is unnatural.

Islam is emphatic in the negation of this stupid concept. There is no such figment as equality of sexes. Allah Ta'ala has bestowed a higher rank to males. The Qur'aan explicitly states the superiority of the male's rank.

The testimony of two women equates to the testimony of one man. The son's share of inheritance is double that of the daughter. The right of Talaq is vested in only the man. A woman requires a male Wali (guardian) to contract her marriage. She requires a male mahram for a journey. In many aspects have Islam decreed the fallacy of equality.

It is a stupid idea of lustful western kuffaar. The only sphere in which these kuffaar have succeeded in establishing equality is in immorality, immodesty and nudity. That is why they are even exerting themselves to provide the same public toilets for men and women. Their culture is a cult of the toilet. This has always been the underlying motive for the stupid concept of equality of sexes.

FUEL FOR JAHANNAM

"Verily, you and whatever you worship are the fuel of Jahannam."

This is the Qur'aan's message and warning for the munaafiq interfaithers lurking in the community.

STATE OF TRAUMA: ISRAEL WRESTLES WITH MENTAL AFTERSHOCKS OF WAR

After more than two years of relentless bombardment and war – from Israel’s genocide in Gaza and the Hamas-led assault on southern villages in October 2023 that preceded it, to the country’s successive wars and strikes on Iran, Lebanon, Syria and other neighbouring states – analysts, observers, and numerous studies from within Israel have concluded that the country has become moulded by trauma.

A recent survey by Maccabi Healthcare Services found that about one-third of Israelis believe they need professional mental health support. Among those who have served in the army, as either conscripts or reservists, the picture is even starker. In January, Israel’s Defence Ministry reported a near-40 percent rise in the number of post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) cases among its soldiers since September 2023, with a 180 percent increase expected by 2028.

The government has not published the number of soldiers discharged due to mental health over the same period, despite a legal obligation to do so, Israeli media has reported.

Earlier this month, Magen David Adom, Israel’s paramedic service, launched a dedicated mental health emergency service after registering a 45 percent spike in the number of calls it was receiving. The majority, it said, were linked to the continued strain of the country’s multiple wars.

The number of suicides, a key indicator of mental health, has sharply increased across society as a whole, but particularly among the military, with 78 percent of military suicides in 2024 linked to combat operations in Gaza, the occupied West Bank and Lebanon, The Jerusalem Post reported in February. Incidents of domestic violence, as well as mental health conditions such as depression and stress, have all spiked since what many in the country regard as its endless series of wars began in October 2023, as well.

Israel’s President, Isaac Herzog, appeared to acknowledge the trend in late May, referring to the increase in violence across Israeli society itself, including that perpetrated by rampaging Israelis from illegal settlements against Palestinians in the occupied West Bank, and the spike in violence targeting Christians.

Speaking at an awards ceremony, he said, “I wish I could speak today only about unity. But to my great sorrow, we are living through days in which violence is not the only thing rearing its head. Alongside it, at the margins of our magnificent Israeli society, a terrible process is creeping in – a terrible process of brutalisation. It is a slow and disturbing process, one that threatens to enter the mainstream of Israeli society, and we will not allow it.”

‘Like a switch’

“October 7 was like a switch, and the trauma it caused is widespread and ongoing,” Tuly Flint, an Israeli mental health practitioner and combat veteran, told

Al Jazeera. “People’s sense of security was shattered,” he said, arguing that the gap between past conflicts and the present ones had created a false sense of safety, alongside misplaced confidence in Israel’s military and technological superiority, which had kept what he described as the “occupation and oppression” of Palestinians at a secure distance.

“People have lost confidence in their society, government and institutions,” Flint said, describing the sense of institutional betrayal among those who relied on the state for protection, or the moral injury experienced by those who lived through the consequences of its failure to do so. “In some cases, this has led people to embrace right-wing politics, adopt a more forceful response to perceived threats, and lose trust in government,” he added. It is a trend, he said, that shows no sign of slowing.

A poll by the N12 news site of first-time Jewish Israeli voters earlier this year suggested this was true. Of the 18-to-21-year-olds who have come of age during the genocide in Gaza and seemingly endless cycle of regional conflicts, 46 percent said that October 7 had been caused through a “betrayal from within”, with a majority of respondents also showing this generation to be the most right-wing and religious to have existed in Israel’s history.

Hardwired violence

However, the degree to which these trends began on October 7, 2023, is unclear, analysts and observers say. Violence has been intrinsic to Israel since its founding in 1948, analysts, such as the noted Israeli sociologist Yehouda Shenhav-Shahrabani, told Al Jazeera, with the events following October 7 merely giving new impetus to existing currents.

“October 7 was like a new beginning,” Shenhav-Shahrabani said. “People create beginnings to erase the trauma of the past. Giving trauma a start date helps explain it.”

Recounting a conversation he had with his friend, the late Lebanese novelist, Elias Khoury, who had described to him his idea that Israelis need to experience defeat to become “more human” and less hubristic, Shenhav

-Shahrabani said, “I’m not sure that’s happened. October 7 was a defeat, and since then, Israelis have become even more fascist. “There was always a fascist element to zionism, but more liberal strands, such as kibbutzim, obscured it. However, since October 7, it’s become more apparent. You can see it everywhere,” Shenhav-Shahrabani, who has given up teaching in response to endless criticism from a growing number of right-wing students, said.

How its current trauma will shape Israel going forward is unclear, Zahava Solomon, a professor at Tel Aviv University who has researched the phenomenon for the past 40 years, said.

Trauma can motivate a society to be strong and aggressive, or to always seek negotiation, she said. For Israel, the past trauma of the Holocaust has, she said, instilled in society an absolute sense of victimhood, one imprinted upon its citizens from the cradle and for whom the mantra of “never again” has become second nature.

As for the Palestinians, who have experienced their own victimhood, this carries “dire consequences” for the future.

For Flint, however, still on the front line of managing the fallout from the wars’ collective trauma, “There’s no cure”.

THE HATRED OF THE INTERFAITH MUNAAFIQEEEN

Although this Aayat of the Qur’aan Majeed was revealed to apprise the Mu’mineen of the villainy and hatred of the kuffaar, today it applies to even those interfaithers who masquerade as Muslims. The interfaithers lurking within the folds of the Ummah, masquerading as Muslims, are in reality Munaafiqeen who harbour intense hatred for Muslims and Islam. But when they meet Muslims, they pretend to be Muslim.

Examples of these vile munaafiqeen interfaithers are Reverend Bham, Pastor Menk, and the Swamis and Pundits of the Jamiatul Ulama Hind. They are snug in the company of the interfaith kuffaar gang. They sit and dine with them. They are the kind regarding whom the Qur’aan Majeed says:

“When it is said to them: ‘Believe as the People (the Sahaabah) believe’, they (the munaafiqeen and the interfaithers) say: ‘Shall we believe as the ignoramuses believe?’ Behold! They are in fact the sufahaa (ignoramuses), but they do not know (because of the intensity of their stupidity).”
(Al-Baqarah, Aayat 13)

“When they (these munaafiq interfaithers) meet the people of Imaan, they say: ‘We have Imaan.’ However, when they are in privacy with their shayaateen (the Yahood and Nasaaraa interfaith plotters), they say: ‘Verily, we are with you, we were only jesting (when we said that we are with the Mu’mineen).”

Allah mocks them and grants them respite in their satanic mischief in which they wander blindly.”
(Al-Baqarah, Aayats 14 & 15)

The attitude of the munaafiqeen depicted in these

EVERYTHING IS DECREED

"We have not omitted anything from the Kitaab. Then unto their Rabb will they all be assembled."
(Al-Anaam, Aayat 38)

The 'Kitaab' refers to Looh-e-Mahfooth. All developments in the minutest detail are recorded in this Book of Decree. Nothing developing in entire creation has been excluded from the Record in the Heaven. This applies to even birds and animals as is explicitly mentioned in the Qur'aan.

Whatever the outcome of the current War will be, will be the recorded Decree of Allah Azza Wa Jal, and it is with this Decree and Command of Allah Ta'ala that Muslims should reconcile themselves. Whether victory shall be for Iran or the USA, will be decided by only Allah Azza Wa Jal.

IN SECLUSION

When Hadhrat Taaus (Rahmatullah alayh) had secluded himself in his house, dissociating from the community and venturing out only due to dire need, e.g. Jamaat Salaat, the people complained to him of being deprived of his advices, he said: "I have adopted seclusion because of the oppression of the rulers, the corruption of the public and abandonment of the Sunnah. Whoever discriminates between his son and slave in the matter of justice is a Zaalim (oppressor)."

Qur'aanic verses has been inherited by the interfaith reverends, swamis and pundits of our era. These munaafiq interfaithers are completely at home with the kuffaar interfaith mob. They are therefore comfortable dining, wining and merrymaking with them. Thus, they are snug in churches and temples.

While the Qur'aan vehemently and vigorously castigates and rebuts the mushrikeen, the Yahood and Nasaara for their kufr and shirk, the interfaith reverends, swamis and pundits parading themselves as Muslims, sit with the kuffaar, socializing and fraternizing with them. They have accepted the kufr 'broadmindedness' of the interfaith mob by accepting with a smile their kufr and shirk doctrines. They dare not call their interfaith masters to Islam; they dare not even suggest that their shirk and kufr are disgusting, hateful and punishable with eternal perdition in Jahannam.

On the contrary, they sit and have shaitaani 'iftaar' parties with the kuffaar, thus presenting their façades of 'toleration' and 'co-existence'. While Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) was sent by Allah Ta'ala to eliminate kufr and shirk, the interfaith munaafiqeen in our midst have entered into a shaitaani alliance with the kuffaar for sustaining kufr and shirk, and for diluting the Qur'aanic abhorrence for kufr and shirk to make their brand of 'islam' palatable and acceptable to the Yahood and Nasaara whom they bootlick.

"O People of Imaan! Do not take the Yahood and Nasaara as friends. They are mutual friends. Whoever from among you (Muslims) befriends them, verily he is of them. Verily Allah does not guide people who are zaalimeen (oppressors)."
(Al-Maaidah, Aayat 51)

"You will see those in whose hearts is a disease (of kufr and nifaaq) racing among them, saying: 'We fear that some misfortune may befall us.'"
(Al-Maaidah, Aayat 52)

THE UMMAH IN THIS MIRROR

"We have sent (Messengers) to the nations before you. Then, (due to their mischief and evil) We apprehended them with calamities and hardships so that they become humble."

"Why then did they not become humble (and obedient) when Our punishment afflicted them? Instead, their hearts hardened and shaitaan adorned for them their deeds."

Then, when they forgot the advice they were given (by the Ambiya),

We opened for them the doors of all things (of prosperity) until they rejoiced (in reckless mischief) with the bounties they were given, then suddenly We apprehended them. Thus were they confounded (perplexed and wailing when the punishment overtook them).

Thus were the roots of the rebellious people cut. And all praises are for Rabbul Aalameen."

(Al-An'aam, Aayaat 42 - 45)

Reflect and look at the plight of the Ummah in the Mirror of these Aayaat.

"MY TOLERANCE HAS KILLED HIM"

Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) narrated the following Hadith Qudsi:

"Whoever hurts my Wali, verily, I declare war on him."

(Hadith Qudsi is the speech of Allah Ta'ala revealed to Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam). It does not form part of the Qur'aan Majeed.)

There was a Buzrug who was famous for his tolerance and patience (Hilm and Sabr). Once an insolent person decided to test the tolerance of the Buzrug. He knocked on the door of the Buzrug's home and called him. When the Buzrug appeared, the insolent man said: 'I want to marry your mother. I have heard that she is very beautiful'. Along with this statement he made some extremely lewd and immoral suggestions regarding the

A MULE PUNISHES AN INSOLENT SHIA

A Shiah happened to be a neighbour of Imaam Abu Hanifah (rahmatullah alayh). Shiahs are generally extremely insolent. Due the Shiah's hatred for the Sahaabah, he named his two mules, Abu Bakr and Umar. Shiah's have a deep-seated hatred especially for these two Khulafa and are prone to such insolence.

One day one of the mules gave its master such a violent kick that it split open his stomach. When Imaam Abu Hanifah (rahmatullah alayh) was informed, he commented: "It must have been the mule whom he had named Umar. This is the effect of the name 'Umar'". Later it was established that it was indeed the mule with this name which had kicked his master, the Shiah. The Shiah also received a befitting punishment for his insolence.

Commenting on this episode, Hadhrat Maulana Ashraf Ali Thanvi (rahmatullah alayh) said: "There is considerable athr (effect) in names. A child was named Kaleemullah by his parents. This child always remained sickly. I changed his name to Saleemullaah (One who is kept safe by Allah). From the time I changed his name, he recovered and remained healthy. Kaleemullah also means "wounded/injured"

Buzrug's mother.

The Buzrug replied calmly without displaying the slightest emotion: "Good! However, she is an adult and an intelligent lady. I shall present your proposal to her. If she accepts it, I have no objection." The Buzrug had just advanced a few steps into the house when he turned to look.

He was shocked to see the man sprawled on the ground with his head cut off. With a heavy heart he commented: "My tolerance has killed him." In other words, because he did not retaliate to take revenge, Allah Ta'ala took revenge on his behalf. Thus His Wrath slayed the insolent man.

BEWARE OF ZULM (OPPRESSION)

The curse of the mazloom (oppressed) never goes unanswered. Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) said:

“Beware of the dua of the mazloom.....

The dua of the mazloom rises above the clouds and the portals of heaven are opened for it.

Then Rabb (Allah Ta’ala) says: “By My Might and Glory!

I shall aid you even if it is after some time.”

Once a Sage (Buzrug) was making dua with his hands raised. Above him on a rafter in the ceiling was the nest of a swallow. While the hands of the Buzrug were open, a tiny chick fell from the nest and landed in his palms. In a moment of ghaflat (obliviousness) the Buzrug momentarily closed his hands. When he opened his palms, he discovered the chick had died. The mother-bird had observed the enactment of this scene.

Soon thereafter, the Buzrug was overtaken by a mysterious illness which weakened him tremendously. He was assigned to bed. His weakness was such that he lacked strength to even perform Taya-mmum. He could hardly stir his limbs. Despite all his supplications to Allah Ta’ala, cure was nowhere in sight. He continued languishing in indisposition and despair until one day a mother-cat carried her kittens into his hut and placed them under the Buzrug’s bed. Soon after the mother-cat had departed, a snake slithered into the hut and grabbed hold of the kitten. Totally oblivious of his indisposition, the buzroog grabbed his staff which was at his bedside, and struck at the snake. The snake dropped the kitten and slithered away. In his state of concern for the kitten and excitement, he had become oblivious of his illness. His mental state overcame his physical weakness, hence he was able to grab his staff and strike at the snake.

When the snake had grabbed the kitten, the mother-cat had just returned and had observed the entire episode. Soon thereafter, the Buzrug began recuperating, and within a couple of days he had fully regained his strength. There was no sign of the illness in him. Mystified by the sudden onset of the illness and its equally sudden and swift departure, the Buzrug supplicated to Allah Ta’ala to unravel the mystery.

Came the Ilhaam (Divine Inspiration/Revelation): “The swallow complained to us, hence the punishment of the sickness. The mother-cat in gratitude supplicated to us, hence the cure.”

A LESSON FOR HAROON RASHID

Once the Khalifah Haroon Rashid took an oath that he would go for Hajj on foot. When the Hajj season was about to begin, an extremely expensive and beautiful carpet was spread from Baghdad to the Baitullah to enable the Khalifah to walk on the carpet from Baghdad. Resting stations with all amenities were established at short intervals along the entire carpeted route for the convenience and rest of the Khalifah.

While the Khalifah was resting at one of these rest-houses, Hadhrat Sa'doon Majnoon (rahmatullah alayh) happened to pass at the spot. Hadhrat Sa'doon was a Buzrug (Saint) who appeared to have lost his senses in his search for Allah Ta'ala, hence the title 'majnoon' (insane).

When Hadhrat Sa'doon (rahmatullah alayh) met the Khalifah, he recited a few lines of poetry, the meaning of which is:

“Even if the world is with you, will Maut not arrive? What then will the world do (to save you)? Only one mile suffices for you. (This was a reference to the Khalifah's resting after walking a mile.) O searcher of the world! Beware! Leave the world for your enemies. Just as the world is making you laugh, it will one day make you cry.”

When Haroon Rashid heard these lines of poetry, he let out a scream and collapsed unconscious. He remained unconscious for a period of three Salaat. When he regained conscious, he ordered a search for Hadhrat Sa'doon (rahmatullah alayh). But he had disappeared without trace.

INSANITY IN THE WAKE OF BRUTALITY

“I wish I could speak today only about unity. But to my sorrow, we are living through days in which violence is not the only thing rearing its head. Alongside it, at the margins of our magnificent Israeli society, a terrible process is creeping in – a terrible process of BRUTALIZATION. It is a disturbing process, one that threatens to enter the mainstream Israeli society...”

(Isaac Hertzog, President of the Devil's State of Israel).

THE DEVIL ALSO SOMETIMES SPEAKS THE TRUTH.

SELLING IMAAN

Hadhrat Abu Zarr (Radhiyallahu anhu) said: “Soon there will dawn an age when the price of the Deen will be the gifts and awards of kings (rulers).”

Hadhrat Sufyaan Thauri (Rahmatullah alayh) said: “He who has accepted a gift from a Zaalim (ruler of oppression - tyrant) has broken all the handles of Islam.” In other words, he has practically dissociated himself from Islam. He no longer has a hold on the Deen.

Questions & Answers

Q. Because of the war there appears to be much panic among Muslims. How should Muslims prepare themselves besides spiritually? Should we stock up with essentials?

A. The panic is due to defective Imaan. When the focus is not on Allah Ta'ala, then the heart panics even when seeing shadows. Whatever happens and will happen will be the decree of Allah Ta'ala. Muslims should always at all times be in the state of preparedness, especially for Maut. The first step of preparedness is moral and spiritual reformation. Physical preparedness while also necessary, is of secondary importance. Stocking up essentials in anticipation of shortages is permissible. Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) had permitted such a measure.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

Q. My friend says that it is compulsory to obey all the laws of the kaafir country where we live. He basis his view on the Qur'aan's command to fulfil pledges.

A. It is not permissible to obey such laws which are in conflict with the Shariah. Hence, if one is able to circumvent the laws of Taaghoot which conflict with the Shariah, then this will be perfectly permissible.

If a person who is not a born citizen of a country makes a pledge to the kaafir government to observe its laws, then the pledge becomes binding. There is no pledge between the born citizens of a country and the government. On the contrary, the government is installed by the citizens. Therefore, the Aayat pertaining to fulfilment of pledges does not apply to born citizens of a country.

Furthermore, immigrants -- foreigners -- who apply for citizenship should understand that it is haraam to sign a pledge which requires one to commit haraam deeds. It is not permissible to migrate to a kaafir country where one has to pledge to abide by even kufr, fisq and fujoor. Thus, those who migrate to kuffaar countries such as Canada, America, UK, etc. where they have to pledge to abide by kufr, are guilty of grave and major sins.

Q. It is mentioned in the Hadith that it is difficult to find a camel in a herd of a hundred to lead. What is the meaning of this?

A. The meaning of the Hadith is quite clear. True leadership is rare. The ingredients of true leadership are:

- (a) Detestation for being a leader
 - (b) Aversion for titles
 - (c) Taqwa – genuine fear for Allah Ta'ala
 - (e) Genuinely believing that one is the most contemptible sinner and that even a dog is better than one
 - (f) Knowledge of the Deen
- Today you will not find leaders of this calibre.

Q. It is mentioned in the tafseer that Haya (modesty) is the distinct characteristic of Islam. What is the distinct characteristics of Judaism and Christianity?

A. The distinct characteristic of Judaism is extreme love for money, deception and cruelty. You will see it unfolding today in the genocide in Palestine. The distinct characteristic of Christianity is immorality – zina, pork and wine.
